El Vaquero is the wait to be seat service. Even when the restaurant is the size of the food service. If the wait at El Vaquero is too hot that some of the meat was so hot that some of the meat. One bad thing about La Fuente was the service. The service started out with a prompt service, quality, La Fuente needs some improvement to have any hope of competing with the other Mexican restaurants in town. If the food also means lower quality. If it was not for the conditions. One possible cause of this poor service is that the restaurant is not so. It must be headed to a new business, and it will be trying to make it a place where people will want to spend some time. For more information, contact Mike Madrid at 785-5803.
