Bodenhausen returns after missing nearly two years

Head coach Shannon Currier said he had faith in LeVeron after missing nearly two years. "He's a great player, a solid person," Currier said. "I've gotten to know him a lot more over the years, and he was a big part of the team. He's one of the guys that could also play a role in his position."

Bodenhausen missed 19 games in the 2004 season, but Currier said this doesn't affect him in any way. "I think there's some guys that look up to him, and I think he can be a leader next year," Currier said. "He could also play a role in the team."

Bodenhausen said that after a long period of thinking and prayer, he decided to come back. "I just prayed a lot. I just gave it to God. I just put it all in God's hands, and I know he'll take care of it," Currier said. "We're going to take care of it."
