The Office of Advancement in McClain Hall is being renovated following a pipe burst Nov. 3 that damaged computers and other equipment. The estimated cost of the damage is between $5,000 and $7,000.

Applications for the vacant fire chief position are being accepted by the city, but the city manager had said earlier that there may have been too many applicants to attract one individual.