The Mules began strong, scoring the first three runs of the game to take an early 3-0 lead. However, Truman's defense held firm and the Mules were unable to score another run for the rest of the game, as the Bulldogs won 10-3.

Junior left-hander Coley Lewis, the team's ace, was on the mound to start the game and was solid throughout. He allowed six hits and two walks over five innings, but only one unearned run in the loss.

Junior Josh Mayson led the team with three hits, and Truman scored four runs in the second inning on twoWalks and a double to right center by freshman Josh Lucas. Lucas later scored the last run of the game in the ninth inning.

The Bulldogs' offense was led by three seniors, who combined for seven hits and six runs.

The Mules' pitching was decent, as they allowed only 10 hits and six runs, but the defense struggled in the loss. Truman's catcher, Sophomore Steven Hotek, had a hit of the day for the Mules, but he also allowed a passed ball in the third inning that allowed the Bulldogs to score.

In the fourth inning, Truman's pitcher, Freshman Andy Schulte, was solid, allowing only five hits and one run in three innings, but he was unable to get the next batter out, and the Bulldogs scored four runs on three hits.

The Mules' pitching was solid once again in the fifth inning, as Freshman Josh Lucas allowed only one hit and no runs in one inning of work. However, the Mules were unable to keep the Bulldogs from scoring, as they allowed five runs in the inning.

The Mules' offense struggled in the game, as they only scored three runs on 10 hits. The Bulldogs' pitching was solid throughout the game, as they allowed only 10 hits and six runs, but the defense struggled in the loss.
