Continued from Page 2

Continued from Page 2

Corrected from Page 1

Corrected from Page 1

Costa, psychology professor is recovering in hospital in St. Louis after suffering a fall

Alvarez-Landa said that the

"I had a lot of pain in my neck and back."

Noblemeth

4 | No one connects judges with a criminal case. In fact, the system is designed to prevent any possible conflict of interest. The public might wonder who

The 4-year "cook" teaches 10

PR

Continued from Page 2

Continued from Page 2

Recovery from drug court is a challenge for all addicts. For one to stay drug-free for life is an incredible achievement. The road to recovery is difficult and long, but with perseverance, hard work, and the support of family, friends, and a drug court program, it is possible. Recovery is a lifelong journey, and it is essential to stay vigilant and committed to maintaining sobriety. Drug court programs, such as the one in Kirksville, provide the necessary support and resources to help individuals overcome their addiction and achieve a brighter future.