Faust is a competitive Highland Games athlete. She competes in a variety of events, including the hammer throw, the sheaf toss, and the weight for distance. Her personal record in the hammer throw is 31 foot 10 inches, set in 2005. She also holds a personal record in the sheaf toss, which she completed in 2006.

Despite having a strong track record, Faust has had some challenges in her career. In 2005, she withdrew from the hammer throw competition due to a back injury. In 2006, she missed the state championship due to the same injury. However, Faust has remained competitive and has continued to improve, setting new personal records in both the hammer throw and the sheaf toss.

Her coaches and teammates have praised her dedication and hard work. Head coach John Cochrane said, "Jacquie has been working really hard on her form and technique. She's really improving in every event." Senior player Krista Kastler added, "Jacquie is a great competitor and always gives her best effort."

Despite her injuries, Faust remains committed to her sport and to maintaining her form. She continues to train hard and to compete in a variety of events. She has set her sights on possibly pursuing a college scholarship and hopes to continue her academic and athletic career at the highest level.
