Stage mix-up delays event

Wade Lurk went to his friend’s college on Sunday to watch the Truman football team play. His parents reported him missing after the game and they have yet to find him.

“Do not be alarmed at the possibility of anything,” the family said.

Wade Lurk is currently a senior at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, studying mechanical engineering.

Lurk was last seen walking on the sidelines of a football game when the stage was set up.

Small town fears for missing youth

His parents reported him missing after the game and they have yet to find him.

“Do not be alarmed at the possibility of anything,” the family said.

Wade Lurk is currently a senior at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, studying mechanical engineering.

Lurk was last seen walking on the sidelines of a football game when the stage was set up.

Special Olympics Missouri goes later than scheduled

The Special Olympics Missouri Opening Ceremonies, scheduled for 11:30 a.m., did not start until 12:30 p.m. Because of the delay, the event was shortened.

Student Senate upates its action plan

The Student Senate approved an action plan outlining its priorities for implementing the vision document.

In Brief

- Atmos Energy Corporation announced April 7 that it would seek a gas rate increase because of increased operating costs and other expenses.
- A Truman student was taken into protective custody by police on Sunday night.
- The University received $3.44 million gift.
- The Missouri Senate approved a resolution that called for the elimination of the state's corporate income tax.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to Truman.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.
- The University received a $30 million money motion for a gift card to the University.