John Scognamiglio
Staff Reporter

For the third time in four years, volleyball plays No. 1 ranked team at nationals

Nov. 10 at Pershing Arena.

by putting up a fight.

The coaches' speeches

in the region. They had remained an inseparable unit and she was a starting middle hitter.

The coaches' speeches

tral Missouri State University in the winning outside hitter her entire career – she so she could safely hit spoke to Missouri State University's two squads met is the location.

in the South Central Regional, and our season would be Scene in the locker room was out of the way.

We are pretty much facing the same rival, she said.

hadn't played before.

first match of her vol-

2005 NCAA Elite Eight

Dec. 1 to 3, Kearney, Neb.

On the court, she said: "My dad coached me unbelievable motivators."

The coaches' speeches

it. I love the locker room scenes and the middle hitter and reigning National dealing with Whitney back there." Clearly, which was essentially taking charge of the backline.

The coaches' speeches and Melbourne, Australia. Both 18 digs and helped limit before the taking charge of the backline. For her

'chivalry.'

The coaches' speeches

Truman was on fire and the crowd noise during digs in the 'Dogs' 3-1 victory. For her the two teams

USM (29-4) in 25 saves. Then, the play-

Middle blocker Kelsey Wackerman

Second year: Returned to the

for the seniors, so we true experience. "This is the third ap-remained at 3-0. In 2004, it was the University

2005 NCAA Elite Eight

emphasized in Div. II volleyball, he thought it was the best rival. We are pretty much facing the same swept the Lopers 3-0 when they met in

She was picking up digs that we the Lady Blues, they stood on the

in the region. They had

winning outside hitter her entire career – she

the coaches' speeches

The coaches' speeches

women's volleyball team will be facing

I'm really excited, and I enjoyed freshman trio help Truman advance in tourney