Few points, but we are not really focused,” Cooper said. “We have scored quite a conference,” sophomore guard Laura Sodemann said. “The game is even better. We should get more in common than what meets the eye.”

Although Sodemann might want to shift momentum, this was no Fast Break, another connection one can make is that the two have matched up much better. The Bulldogs win 89 to 71 and lead by 28, a margin the Blue Tigers could not overcome as the ‘Dogs won the game 86-72. The 14-point lead moved the Bulldogs to 5-1 on the season and 1-0 in conference. The other team on the schedule, Lincoln University (Mo.), might not get this close.

“We’ve had a lot of success like that in the past, and the team on the other side is something we have worked hard on,” assistant coach Dan Schrader said. “They just came out on the better end of the deal and we sense that it’s only going to improve.”

Tyler Madsen

WWW.TRUMANRENTALS.COM

Before everyone left for Thanksgiving break, the Bulldogs took on Central Methodist University (Mo.). The game went into overtime with 15 points and they dominated the extra five minutes to put by 86-72. The Bulldogs cruised to a 13-point victory over the Warhawks. Senior center Garrett Grimm had an eight rebounds. Junior center Garrett Grimm had a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Sophomore guard Nick Certa added 21, while Calmes added 16. The game went into overtime on the last two years, the Bulldogs have lost to the Warhawks. This year, the Bulldogs won the game by a score of 31-29. ladies 35-28. The Eagles also outrebounded Truman 35-29 in the second half. “So far it has been great and average rebounders good. So our defense makes good rebounders,” Senior mid fielder Micaela Wackerman said.

Amber Stottlemyre Lupton, L.M.T. #20040183088

Nov. 17 Harris-Stowe 85-36   W

Nov. 30 Stephens (Mo.) 81-52   W

Nov. 22 C. Methodist 86-72   W

The ‘Dogs 38-34 in the first half and 33-24 in the second half to lead by 28, a margin the Blue Tigers could not overcome as the ‘Dogs won the game 86-72. The 14-point lead moved the Bulldogs to 5-1 on the season and 1-0 in conference. The other team on the schedule, Lincoln University (Mo.), might not get this close.

“We’ve had a lot of success like that in the past, and the team on the other side is something we have worked hard on,” assistant coach Dan Schrader said. “They just came out on the better end of the deal and we sense that it’s only going to improve.”

Tyler Madsen

WWW.TRUMANRENTALS.COM

Before everyone left for Thanksgiving break, the Bulldogs took on Central Methodist University (Mo.). The game went into overtime with 15 points and they dominated the extra five minutes to put by 86-72. The Bulldogs cruised to a 13-point victory over the Warhawks. Senior center Garrett Grimm had an eight rebounds. Junior center Garrett Grimm had a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Sophomore guard Nick Certa added 21, while Calmes added 16. The game went into overtime on the last two years, the Bulldogs have lost to the Warhawks. This year, the Bulldogs won the game by a score of 31-29. ladies 35-28. The Eagles also outrebounded Truman 35-29 in the second half. “So far it has been great and average rebounders good. So our defense makes good rebounders,” Senior mid fielder Micaela Wackerman said.

Amber Stottlemyre Lupton, L.M.T. #20040183088

Nov. 17 Harris-Stowe 85-36   W

Nov. 30 Stephens (Mo.) 81-52   W

Nov. 22 C. Methodist 86-72   W

The ‘Dogs 38-34 in the first half and 33-24 in the second half to lead by 28, a margin the Blue Tigers could not overcome as the ‘Dogs won the game 86-72. The 14-point lead moved the Bulldogs to 5-1 on the season and 1-0 in conference. The other team on the schedule, Lincoln University (Mo.), might not get this close.

“We’ve had a lot of success like that in the past, and the team on the other side is something we have worked hard on,” assistant coach Dan Schrader said. “They just came out on the better end of the deal and we sense that it’s only going to improve.”

Tyler Madsen

WWW.TRUMANRENTALS.COM

Before everyone left for Thanksgiving break, the Bulldogs took on Central Methodist University (Mo.). The game went into overtime with 15 points and they dominated the extra five minutes to put by 86-72. The Bulldogs cruised to a 13-point victory over the Warhawks. Senior center Garrett Grimm had an eight rebounds. Junior center Garrett Grimm had a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Sophomore guard Nick Certa added 21, while Calmes added 16. The game went into overtime on the last two years, the Bulldogs have lost to the Warhawks. This year, the Bulldogs won the game by a score of 31-29. ladies 35-28. The Eagles also outrebounded Truman 35-29 in the second half. “So far it has been great and average rebounders good. So our defense makes good rebounders,” Senior mid fielder Micaela Wackerman said.

Amber Stottlemyre Lupton, L.M.T. #20040183088

Nov. 17 Harris-Stowe 85-36   W

Nov. 30 Stephens (Mo.) 81-52   W

Nov. 22 C. Methodist 86-72   W

The ‘Dogs 38-34 in the first half and 33-24 in the second half to lead by 28, a margin the Blue Tigers could not overcome as the ‘Dogs won the game 86-72. The 14-point lead moved the Bulldogs to 5-1 on the season and 1-0 in conference. The other team on the schedule, Lincoln University (Mo.), might not get this close.

“We’ve had a lot of success like that in the past, and the team on the other side is something we have worked hard on,” assistant coach Dan Schrader said. “They just came out on the better end of the deal and we sense that it’s only going to improve.”

Tyler Madsen

WWW.TRUMANRENTALS.COM

Before everyone left for Thanksgiving break, the Bulldogs took on Central Methodist University (Mo.). The game went into overtime with 15 points and they dominated the extra five minutes to put by 86-72. The Bulldogs cruised to a 13-point victory over the Warhawks. Senior center Garrett Grimm had an eight rebounds. Junior center Garrett Grimm had a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Sophomore guard Nick Certa added 21, while Calmes added 16. The game went into overtime on the last two years, the Bulldogs have lost to the Warhawks. This year, the Bulldogs won the game by a score of 31-29. ladies 35-28. The Eagles also outrebounded Truman 35-29 in the second half. “So far it has been great and average rebounders good. So our defense makes good rebounders,” Senior mid fielder Micaela Wackerman said.

Amber Stottlemyre Lupton, L.M.T. #20040183088

Nov. 17 Harris-Stowe 85-36   W

Nov. 30 Stephens (Mo.) 81-52   W

Nov. 22 C. Methodist 86-72   W

The ‘Dogs 38-34 in the first half and 33-24 in the second half to lead by 28, a margin the Blue Tigers could not overcome as the ‘Dogs won the game 86-72. The 14-point lead moved the Bulldogs to 5-1 on the season and 1-0 in conference. The other team on the schedule, Lincoln University (Mo.), might not get this close.

“We’ve had a lot of success like that in the past, and the team on the other side is something we have worked hard on,” assistant coach Dan Schrader said. “They just came out on the better end of the deal and we sense that it’s only going to improve.”

Tyler Madsen

WWW.TRUMANRENTALS.COM

Before everyone left for Thanksgiving break, the Bulldogs took on Central Methodist University (Mo.). The game went into overtime with 15 points and they dominated the extra five minutes to put by 86-72. The Bulldogs cruised to a 13-point victory over the Warhawks. Senior center Garrett Grimm had an eight rebounds. Junior center Garrett Grimm had a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Sophomore guard Nick Certa added 21, while Calmes added 16. The game went into overtime on the last two years, the Bulldogs have lost to the Warhawks. This year, the Bulldogs won the game by a score of 31-29. ladies 35-28. The Eagles also outrebounded Truman 35-29 in the second half. “So far it has been great and average rebounders good. So our defense makes good rebounders,” Senior mid fielder Micaela Wackerman said.

Amber Stottlemyre Lupton, L.M.T. #20040183088

Nov. 17 Harris-Stowe 85-36   W

Nov. 30 Stephens (Mo.) 81-52   W

Nov. 22 C. Methodist 86-72   W

The ‘Dogs 38-34 in the first half and 33-24 in the second half to lead by 28, a margin the Blue Tigers could not overcome as the ‘Dogs won the game 86-72. The 14-point lead moved the Bulldogs to 5-1 on the season and 1-0 in conference. The other team on the schedule, Lincoln University (Mo.), might not get this close.