Sophomore guard Natalie Schupbach said the team worked hard through the first half, "even though we were able to take care of business. We gave up too many offensive rebounds and turnovers.”

"We didn’t have enough energy in the first half,” she said. "We did not take care of the ball. We stepped up to the free-throw line 11 times and made only six.”

Sophomore guard Lorraine Wirkus said the team was working on improving the problems Schupbach identified. "We just didn’t have enough energy in the first half,” she said. "We did not take care of the ball. We stepped up to the free-throw line 11 times and made only six.”
