$165 million for Access Missouri recommends $190 million in endowed scholarships and is and Clark Discovery Initiative, calls for more money into scholarships instead of receive from the sale. This plan will put plan, Access Missouri, with the esti-

Republicans are developing their own business development at MOHELA, de-

MOHELA

Will Shaffner, associate director of calls to ensure not violating the Sunshine Law.

lion of student loans to private investors, but intended to stop the sale of more than $1 bil-

While Gov. Matt Blunt's plan, the Lew-

Despite the lawsuit, Missouri House

House Speaker Rod Jetton.

Todd Abrajano, communications director

"The Commissioner of Higher Education

Abrajano said. "The House is going forward with their plan until sion that MOHELA was within their right to pursue their plans in spite of the lawsuit.

Spence Jackson said Blunt's of improvement projects, including $21.8 mil-for renovations to Pershing Building.

Both Jackson and Abrajano said they will

"The Commissioner of Higher Education

spoke "If I will just put it in my ac-

"I think that most of us around here

Dean of science Scott Ellis said the scal year 2006 will not help because it

"So in the end, if we want to, for ex-

Dean of student affairs, commented on the

"Previous years' results were used in the ca-

Continued from Page 1

as the theater department. Robert Graber, science, said the sociology/anthropology and was like 'Uh, I won something. This and friends from Residence Life earlier or else

she wouldn't have attended the game.

friends from Residence Life earlier or else

she wouldn't have attended the game.

she'd put it in my count and see if whatever I had to she said. "No major expenditures, I sup-pen that often."

Gordon said he has received some fac-

"One would be to get faculty and staff

"Gordon said he has received some fac-

"Previous years' results were used in the ca-

Continued from Page 1

"I think right now, people are re-are more concerned about the ratio and allow us to keep on the cutting kinds of things that will enrich the instiution and allow us to keep on the cutting edge in higher education."