BUZZER

Men's Basketball

The Bulldogs have won multiple close games this year, propelling them to 18.5 and 84 MIAA AIAA.

This year, the team finished 4-3 in games decided by six points or fewer, as opposed to 0-7 last year.

2006-07

Opponent Score W/L

Dir. 10 State Baptist 80-82 L

Jan. 21 Empire State 61-58 W

Jan. 25 NW Mo. State 52-66 W

Feb. 1 NW Mo. State 76-71 L

Feb. 5 Emporia State 85-67 L

Overall Record: 18-5, 8-4

BUZZER

BASKETBALL

Baptist University, the conference unheard of the South Central regional poll, the team jumped up to third place and regional polls this week.

"For us, it was really important to go double-team Banks and left all needed to crash the boards," one hard-fought victory.

the Bulldog players celebrated an when Banks was able to get a double.

"I think you're always better off letting Calmes was right there trailing the lay-up glanced off the back iron, either chance, and Emporia point banked in a three-pointer with mark in similar games.

Sodemann said the turnaround has over eighty-fell in. We've learned how to win those close games. It was a turning point for us."

"The crowd was awesome," said. "I really appreciate the fans. They've de-}

"The Bulldogs have the opportu-against the Griffons jumped out to a 12-3 lead in the early minutes and never looked back on the way to an 80-57 victory. The first half of the afternoon.

Unfortunately, the second time around resembled the first as the Griffons jumped out to a 12-3 lead in the early minutes and never looked back on the way to an 80-57 victory. The first half of the afternoon.

The Bulldogs have won five-game winning streak.

Saturday's victory, though, made two shots – including the final tip-in – giving the purple and white another close victory.

"We wanted to make it easy for her to catch the post," he said. "We've played in a ton of close games, and we know how to win those close games.

The Bulldogs have won five-game winning streak.

Saturday's victory, though, made two shots – including the final tip-in – giving the purple and white another close victory.

"We wanted to make it easy for her to catch the post," he said. "We've played in a ton of close games, and we know how to win those close games."