Terrorifying driver’s ed. was the danger

```
Come to think of it, though, maybe watching a person experience something empowering for the first time is worth all the risk involved.
```

Andrew Gant

Spying program sans warrants is grounds for impeachment

```
Surprisingly, Sanjay Pratap Sharma is a senior communication and English major from Fell, Ill., who also has an active interest in playing soccer, lacrosse, and basketball. Sharma was born in the small town of Sikkim, India, but moved to the United States at a young age, when his parents received a scholarship to attend college in the United States. Sharma is currently pursuing a degree in communication and English, with a minor in political science.

```
Sharma begins with the assertion that the war on terror, while having noble intentions, has also led to the loss of civil liberties.

```
Sharma is a proponent of the Constitution, and believes that the government should not exceed the powers granted to it by the Constitution. Sharma is a firm believer in the rule of law, and believes that the government should not act in ways that violate the Constitution.

```
Sharma is concerned with the issue of government surveillance, and believes that the government should not engage in activities that violate the privacy of citizens.

```
Sharma is a firm believer in the rule of law, and believes that the government should not act in ways that violate the Constitution. Sharma is concerned with the issue of government surveillance, and believes that the government should not engage in activities that violate the privacy of citizens.

```
Sharma is a proponent of the Constitution, and believes that the government should not exceed the powers granted to it by the Constitution. Sharma is currently pursuing a degree in communication and English, with a minor in political science.
```

New-age moshers show blatant disregard for the safety of others and disregard for an utter disregard for the basic right everyone has to an enjoyable concert-going experience.

```
Asking the question of how can anyone enjoy a show when they are at risk of dying is not a question that a seasoned concertgoer should have to ask themselves. Asking the question of how can anyone enjoy a show when they are at risk of dying is not a question that a seasoned concertgoer should have to ask themselves.
```

Keely Reid

Interactions tend to change off campus

```
It’s always a welcome experience to promote music that is aural and environmental. For me, it was a good experience to promote music that is aural and environmental. For me, it was a good experience to promote music that is aural and environmental.
```

Joel Anderson

Spying program sans warrants is grounds for impeachment

```
The most important thing to mention is that the spying program does not have a legal basis. The program does not have a legal basis. The program does not have a legal basis.
```

Andrew Gant