...the Hawks are league champions, and the 'Dogs try to make it to the regional. Southwestern Illinois College (SWIC) joins the Hawks as a top seed by defeating the 11th-seeded College of Lake County (CLC) in the regional semifinal game at 2 p.m. on Saturday. The Hawks won 3-2, and the 'Dogs will play the winner of the semifinal game between CLC and South Suburban College on Sunday.

The Hawks are top-seeded in the Great Lakes region and will face off against the winner of the Appalachian region, whose representatives in the national tournament are Central State University and Clarksville College (TN) and Tusculum University (TN). The Hawks defeated the 'Dogs 2-0 in the 1st round of the playoffs.

The Hawks defeated the 'Dogs 2-0 in the 3rd round of the playoffs.

On Sept. 9, while SWIC defeated Rider at 1-0 (2) in Kansas City, Mo. Both games were stand-alone matches for the 'Dogs. It's going to be a hard and weak game of practice," said Cochrane. "The Hawks are prepared, take care of our business on the field and will be ready for the weekend that's ahead of us.
