directly to the vice president. Although each academic discipline – more than 25 undoubtedly have different regulatory needs – a School called the College of Arts and Sciences would be a superb representative for the University’s academic divisions is under scrutiny from students, uneven standards across disciplines. Model II is a theoretical conglomeration thus creates unnecessary communication is decentralized is a recipe for disorder. The advantages of…

...to the editor. I am writing to express my disapproval of the recent... The advantages of the current system cannot be underestimated for reorganizing... EXTREMELY IMPORTANT: All letters to the editor...