“Sometimes [students] just don’t find a niche here, and that is certainly a big concern,” Marcy Graham Academic Advisor

“Not everyone is destined to be a person who is involved with someone,” Rodgers said. “It’s very important for people to do something that they enjoy or that they are passionate about.”

“...So unless you do something about it, you will never be happy,” she said. “You’ll Go” helped her realize what she should be doing.

“...but I knew it had to be there, and the best solution, Krylowicz said.
