Letters to the Editor

Do you turn your cell phone off during class?

letters@truman.edu or on our Web site at www.trumanindex.com. Include your name and major, and we will publish all letters we receive.

The Index is published Thursdays during the school year by students at Truman State, University, Kirksville, Mo. 63501. The production offices are located in the Student Union Building, Room 211. The editor-in-chief is the responsibility of the Index staff.

The editor is chief consul with the staff and advisor and is ultimately responsible for all decisions. Opinions of Index columnists are not necessarily representative of the Index. Each issue is comprised of letters to the editor, student government policy, a weekly staff report, sports, and lifestyle sections. The Index is distributed through a variety of venues on campus.

The Index reserves the right to edit or reject any letter submitted for publication. All letters to the editor must be typed, double-spaced, signed, and include a phone number for verification.

Letters to the editor may also be submitted by e-mail at lettersindex@truman.edu or on our Web site at www.trumanindex.com. Include the sender's "letter to the editor" in the subject line of the e-mail. Individual may submit only one letter a week.
