Men's and women's tennis teams destroy Westminster College

John Seegers
Assistant Staff Reporter
For the first time this season, the Bulldog tennis teams had a weekend they didn't want to remember.

Tuesday, the team traveled to Fulton, Mo. to take on Westminster College. The women's team was flawless on the afternoon, going 6-0 to allow an early exit.

Senior Becky Dinsick represented the team with her second set 6-3. The final set

Wackerman is driven to MIAA Hit- ter of the Week Junior Kyley Wackerman was recently awarded the MIAA Hitter Award.

Wackerman average 4.58 points, 7.8 aces and 3.8 digs per game in the past two games against ranked opponents.

Wackerman's five double-doubles this year, including her effort on the year, makes her one of the top players in II.

Baseball has first ever Alumni Game
Senior Travis Cope was named the MIAA Hitter for his performance last weekend.

The squads will play one 9-run game at 1:30 p.m. at the Truman baseball field. The cost for the event is $5 per person in advance or $7 per person on the door. All proceeds will go to the Truman's baseball program.

Men's golf takes fourth at Southern Invitational Sophomore Michael Spark-ling's team placed fourth at the So-

Rochester
Northwest Missouri State Uni-

Syrup
Mixing up fresh juice
Enjoy these great recipes
Marlboro
Salem
Basic Camel
Monarch
GPC
Winston
Full Mall
Purina
Budweiser
Coors
Busch
Cappuccino

16

Women perfect on road

Last week, junior Jacquie Faust was the MIAA Runner of the Week after posting a time of 18:11 at the Maysville Hills Cross Country Meet at Missouri Southern's Southern Stampede.

Senior Brad Martin prepares to hit a one-handed backhand during practice earlier this month. The men's squad traveled to Fulton, Mo. and best Westminster College 8-1 on Tuesday.

SPORTS
Faust captures MIAA Runner of the Week
For the second weekend in a row, junior Jacquie Faust won the MIAA Runner of the Week award.

Faust finished a 17:56 to finish 15th at the Southern Stampede. In her performance, she was one point ahead of the Missouri Southern runner and the fourth-best among 12 runners.

Alumna Lauren White was the first Truman student athlete to capture this award.

For the second straight week, Faust's name was the first on the list of Truman finishers at the Kirksville Country Club.

Senior Brian Martin prepares to hit a one-handed backhand during practice earlier this month.

Senior Brad Martin prepares to hit a one-handed backhand during practice earlier this month.