1. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

2. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.

3. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall's Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

4. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

5. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

6. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.

7. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

8. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

9. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

10. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.

11. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

12. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

13. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

14. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.

15. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

16. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

17. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

18. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.

19. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

20. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

21. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

22. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.

23. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

24. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

25. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

26. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.

27. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

28. City leases to new business

City Council members had trouble getting their new tenant to agree on the building at the last Monday’s regular session after two years of searching for a tenant to occupy the building at 203 W. Main St.

29. City Council Business

- Implemented new flood plain ordinance & procedures manual
- Reopened on East Shannon Drive for new local business
- Granted liquor license to Too Tall’s Inferno, which has yet to receive a business license
- Reappointed Brenda Hunter position to the Taxation Financing Commission

30. Student Union Building wars organizations after food ban regulations broke

Student Union Building warns organizations after food ban regulations broke.