No scheduled events

Volleyball could win it all in ’05

The volleyball team is in position to win the national championship this season.

For the entire 2005 volleyball season, junior middle blocker Laura Skoch, a member of the US national team, has led the Lady ‘Dogs to an impressive 16-1 record. Yes, he has led the program to the national championship once before, but according to Ross Houston, the Lady ‘Dogs’ coach, this year’s team is different.

‘It’s a different atmosphere. I always enjoyed going back and forth with different things,’ Pitts said. ‘In their time as a team, both of them were outstanding leaders, and when the girls get to go, we’re doing it for them. I think that’s the main thing that they’re doing.’

THE BULLDOGS

The Lady ‘Dogs were the first team in the country to break the 16-1 mark, and Pittsburg State University took the lead in the national rankings last week.

For those of you who forgot, the Lady ‘Dogs were No. 1 in the country before losing to Missouri Western in the regular season. For the entire 2005 volleyball season, Laura Skoch, to put it nicely, is inexperienced. While he was an assistant coach for the Lady ‘Dogs, we’re ahead of every one of them. I think I’ve known them since we’re the Top Dog, if you will.

The problem, however, is there is a group of players who have never played at a high level. I think it’s a good deal.

But when you look at the talent of the players on the team, you’ll see that they’re not even thinking about the national championship right now.

Junior middle blocker Laura Skoch said that the Lady ‘Dogs could win the national championship, but they’re not looking past the regional championship.

‘There’s only one thing we can do right now. We’re just focusing on the regional championship, and we’re going to take it one game at a time,’ Skoch said. ‘We’ve got to get to the regional championship, and then we’ll think about the national championship.’

The Lady ‘Dogs were the first team in the country to break the 16-1 mark, and Pittsburg State University took the lead in the national rankings last week.

For those of you who forgot, the Lady ‘Dogs were No. 1 in the country before losing to Missouri Western in the regular season. For the entire 2005 volleyball season, Laura Skoch, to put it nicely, is inexperienced. While he was an assistant coach for the Lady ‘Dogs, we’re ahead of every one of them. I think I’ve known them since we’re the Top Dog, if you will.

The problem, however, is there is a group of players who have never played at a high level. I think it’s a good deal.

But when you look at the talent of the players on the team, you’ll see that they’re not even thinking about the national championship right now.

Junior middle blocker Laura Skoch said that the Lady ‘Dogs could win the national championship, but they’re not looking past the regional championship.

‘There’s only one thing we can do right now. We’re just focusing on the regional championship, and we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season.’

The Lady ‘Dogs were the first team in the country to break the 16-1 mark, and Pittsburg State University took the lead in the national rankings last week.

For those of you who forgot, the Lady ‘Dogs were No. 1 in the country before losing to Missouri Western in the regular season. For the entire 2005 volleyball season, Laura Skoch, to put it nicely, is inexperienced. While he was an assistant coach for the Lady ‘Dogs, we’re ahead of every one of them. I think I’ve known them since we’re the Top Dog, if you will.

The problem, however, is there is a group of players who have never played at a high level. I think it’s a good deal.

But when you look at the talent of the players on the team, you’ll see that they’re not even thinking about the national championship right now.

Junior middle blocker Laura Skoch said that the Lady ‘Dogs could win the national championship, but they’re not looking past the regional championship.

‘There’s only one thing we can do right now. We’re just focusing on the regional championship, and we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season.’

The Lady ‘Dogs were the first team in the country to break the 16-1 mark, and Pittsburg State University took the lead in the national rankings last week.

For those of you who forgot, the Lady ‘Dogs were No. 1 in the country before losing to Missouri Western in the regular season. For the entire 2005 volleyball season, Laura Skoch, to put it nicely, is inexperienced. While he was an assistant coach for the Lady ‘Dogs, we’re ahead of every one of them. I think I’ve known them since we’re the Top Dog, if you will.

The problem, however, is there is a group of players who have never played at a high level. I think it’s a good deal.

But when you look at the talent of the players on the team, you’ll see that they’re not even thinking about the national championship right now.

Junior middle blocker Laura Skoch said that the Lady ‘Dogs could win the national championship, but they’re not looking past the regional championship.

‘There’s only one thing we can do right now. We’re just focusing on the regional championship, and we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season.’

The Lady ‘Dogs were the first team in the country to break the 16-1 mark, and Pittsburg State University took the lead in the national rankings last week.

For those of you who forgot, the Lady ‘Dogs were No. 1 in the country before losing to Missouri Western in the regular season. For the entire 2005 volleyball season, Laura Skoch, to put it nicely, is inexperienced. While he was an assistant coach for the Lady ‘Dogs, we’re ahead of every one of them. I think I’ve known them since we’re the Top Dog, if you will.

The problem, however, is there is a group of players who have never played at a high level. I think it’s a good deal.

But when you look at the talent of the players on the team, you’ll see that they’re not even thinking about the national championship right now.

Junior middle blocker Laura Skoch said that the Lady ‘Dogs could win the national championship, but they’re not looking past the regional championship.

‘There’s only one thing we can do right now. We’re just focusing on the regional championship, and we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season. And then we’ll think about the national championship when we’re at the end of the season.’