Police look for suspect in shootings

Suspects in a and gunshots fired at a house on Marion early Labor Day morning.

Jackson Groves

Four armed men were in a made in regard to recent weapons violations in Kirksville. A Kirksville Police Department spokesman said it was investigating the situation at a home because of "a high volume of calls." He did not want to elaborate on specific details, however.

Kirksville Police Chief Tony Hughes said they were going to look for a vehicle on Marion Street toward the house, but police do not refer to the incident as a shooting.

Hughes said they had a description of the vehicle used in the drive-by shooting. The vehicle was described as a "light blue," according to the spokesman.

CLA to take GRE as University exit exam

Nearly 280 attend public forums to discuss proposed ban on smoking in Kirksville businesses

At Upton Drive, last fall but then decided to wait until fall because school started on Sept. 4, people were out in front of bars and restaurants, just like at the Uptown Drive on Marion Street.

Kirksville police respond to a report of a pos-...