BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Beneficence College’s (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.

BY JACK NICOLLStaff Reporter

With the week’s track season纽带
Senior Jake Uhlenhake was forced to make some new people really step up,” Sexton said. “A lot of them played better.”

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Sean Bergstedt clears a hurdle in practice Wednesday. Bergstedt has broken his own meet record of 52.43, recording a time of 51.45, more than three seconds.

Senior Sean Bergstedt cleans a hurdle in practice Wednesday. Bergstedt broke his own meet record in the 400-meter hurdles at the Northwest Missouri Open last Saturday.

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Jake Uhlenhake and junior Will Holleman claimed the first and second places in the men’s 110-meter hurdles at the North Missouri Open last Saturday with times of 14.57, and 14.92 seconds ahead of the second place finisher. The time for the finisher was 15.34.

BY JACOB HILCHOFF  Staff Reporter

The new 13-step pattern is faster at the beginning but that it can be tough in the middle of the race. Because of this, he said it helps to cut down strides at the beginning and end when your legs are already tired. “It’s a mental thing that helps you get through the first four hurdles,” Bergstedt said. “But for me, the wind is kind of throwing in an extra factor.”

Beneficence College (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Jake Uhlenhake and junior Will Holleman claimed the first and second places in the men’s 110-meter hurdles at the North Missouri Open last Saturday with times of 14.57, and 14.92 seconds ahead of the second place finisher. The time for the finisher was 15.34.

BY JACOB HILCHOFF  Staff Reporter

The new 13-step pattern is faster at the beginning but that it can be tough in the middle of the race. Because of this, he said it helps to cut down strides at the beginning and end when your legs are already tired. “It’s a mental thing that helps you get through the first four hurdles,” Bergstedt said. “But for me, the wind is kind of throwing in an extra factor.”

Beneficence College (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Jake Uhlenhake and junior Will Holleman claimed the first and second places in the men’s 110-meter hurdles at the North Missouri Open last Saturday with times of 14.57, and 14.92 seconds ahead of the second place finisher. The time for the finisher was 15.34.

BY JACOB HILCHOFF  Staff Reporter

The new 13-step pattern is faster at the beginning but that it can be tough in the middle of the race. Because of this, he said it helps to cut down strides at the beginning and end when your legs are already tired. “It’s a mental thing that helps you get through the first four hurdles,” Bergstedt said. “But for me, the wind is kind of throwing in an extra factor.”

Beneficence College (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Jake Uhlenhake and junior Will Holleman claimed the first and second places in the men’s 110-meter hurdles at the North Missouri Open last Saturday with times of 14.57, and 14.92 seconds ahead of the second place finisher. The time for the finisher was 15.34.

BY JACOB HILCHOFF  Staff Reporter

The new 13-step pattern is faster at the beginning but that it can be tough in the middle of the race. Because of this, he said it helps to cut down strides at the beginning and end when your legs are already tired. “It’s a mental thing that helps you get through the first four hurdles,” Bergstedt said. “But for me, the wind is kind of throwing in an extra factor.”

Beneficence College (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Jake Uhlenhake and junior Will Holleman claimed the first and second places in the men’s 110-meter hurdles at the North Missouri Open last Saturday with times of 14.57, and 14.92 seconds ahead of the second place finisher. The time for the finisher was 15.34.

BY JACOB HILCHOFF  Staff Reporter

The new 13-step pattern is faster at the beginning but that it can be tough in the middle of the race. Because of this, he said it helps to cut down strides at the beginning and end when your legs are already tired. “It’s a mental thing that helps you get through the first four hurdles,” Bergstedt said. “But for me, the wind is kind of throwing in an extra factor.”

Beneficence College (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Jake Uhlenhake and junior Will Holleman claimed the first and second places in the men’s 110-meter hurdles at the North Missouri Open last Saturday with times of 14.57, and 14.92 seconds ahead of the second place finisher. The time for the finisher was 15.34.

BY JACOB HILCHOFF  Staff Reporter

The new 13-step pattern is faster at the beginning but that it can be tough in the middle of the race. Because of this, he said it helps to cut down strides at the beginning and end when your legs are already tired. “It’s a mental thing that helps you get through the first four hurdles,” Bergstedt said. “But for me, the wind is kind of throwing in an extra factor.”

Beneficence College (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.

BY ARRON HUSTEAD  Staff Reporter

Senior Jake Uhlenhake and junior Will Holleman claimed the first and second places in the men’s 110-meter hurdles at the North Missouri Open last Saturday with times of 14.57, and 14.92 seconds ahead of the second place finisher. The time for the finisher was 15.34.

BY JACOB HILCHOFF  Staff Reporter

The new 13-step pattern is faster at the beginning but that it can be tough in the middle of the race. Because of this, he said it helps to cut down strides at the beginning and end when your legs are already tired. “It’s a mental thing that helps you get through the first four hurdles,” Bergstedt said. “But for me, the wind is kind of throwing in an extra factor.”

Beneficence College (Kan.) soccer team won 1-0 against Benedictine College on Wednesday, scoring a goal on a penalty kick. The penalty resulted from a Bulldogs player obscuring the ball with his legs while one of the Beneficence players was on the ball. The referee made the right call under the circumstances,” head coach Bill Lenox said. “The kicker was on the ball at all times but certainly a very questionable call, and he’s good enough to kick.” Lenox said the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 17-14.