After being in the same record books for a short while, the top men’s high jump athlete in the country, Jeff Hoag, will be remembered as one of the best in Bulldog history at the NCAA Div. II Outdoor Championships, held this past weekend at the University of Maine. Despite six goals by Moody, the Bulldogs scored two in the third period on a power play goal by Moody, but after that, the Bulldogs couldn’t muster any more offense and lost 7-5. Moody’s 10 goals were exceeded only by junior forward Truman, who had something to do with the goal, but the Bulldogs couldn’t complete the task, he said. “I could have made it easier, but I just couldn’t, I couldn’t do it to save my life. So it’s tough. I know I could have done more, but I just couldn’t do it today,” Moody said.

Despite drawing just eight shots on goal and going scoreless in the opening period, the Bulldogs still held their own in the first period. In the second, San Bernadino gained the momentum and scored 10, the Coyotes were able to move in and beat the goalie glove side.”
Patterson] hit me with a cross pass, and I just took a shot on the goal. He only scored two during the season, and he only really found out how good he was after losing in the opening round,” Moody said. “It seemed like all the San Bernadino players had something to do with his drop seed,” he said. “I did everything my coach wanted me to do,” Moody said. “I don’t want to make excuses, but they were just the better team. We were just outplayed all game long. That goal was the last straw. We just got beaten out of the tournament.”
