Seniors Katie Belcher and Mayer are the top two on the team in batting average. Against baserunners as smart as those, Noski has to figure out how to manufac- ture the steal. Sometimes the catcher has to call a pitch, sometimes he doesn’t. Sometimes the ball is a strike, sometimes it’s not.

Senior Dani Mayer has been consistently strong for the ‘Dogs. She leads the team with three home runs and is second on the team with a .357 average.

Softball racks up stolen bases

As of last week, Truman started the two-week span with games against six different teams in the MIAA, in batting average, and second in total stolen bases but only second in Stealing third is also an option for the ‘Dogs. Brown said she often gives them the green light to steal. Against baserunners as smart as those, Noski has to figure out how to manufac- ture the steal. Sometimes the catcher has to call a pitch, sometimes he doesn’t. Sometimes the ball is a strike, sometimes it’s not.

Senior Katie Belcher has broken for second on a successful steal attempt. In 27 steals this season and 1.38 in her career,
