Bulldogs drop three of four to Griffons

By BLAKE TOFFMAYER
Assistant Sports Editor

After splitting the first two games of the season playing relatively good baseball, the bulldogs' hot streak of winning seven straight was marked with inconsistency.

In the series that freshman catcher Bryce Bond committed his first error of the season and baseball battled its fifth five-run loss. Truman started the season 4-0 and now sit at 4-4 in the First Central Conference.

The final score was 7-5 in favor of Missouri Western State University. The Griffons beat the Bulldogs twice in the series, and twice surrendered 13 runs.

"I would appreciate your support on this home stand and on the road in the future," Truman baseball coach Dan Davis said. "One team (2-21, 1-13) won Saturday's second game and the other (10-22, 3-12) won the other three games.

The Griffons led 9-1.

"The defense wasn't allowing to the Griffons to tally six runs. I played with [Thomas] in high school, and he wasn't allowing to the Griffons to tally six runs," Pearl said.

"I think it was a lack of defense and not playing hard enough," Pearl said.

"I played with [Thomas] in high school, and we did pretty well together," Pearl said.

"I think it was a lack of defense and not playing hard enough," Pearl said.

"I think it was a lack of defense and not playing hard enough," Pearl said.

"I think it was a lack of defense and not playing hard enough," Pearl said.