Poetry project

Continued from Page 1

SCHOOLS

Liberal arts program helps students satisfy interests, become well-rounded

DELEGATES

Superdelegates allow state to still have a say in presidential nomination if delegates split and give party “escape hatch”

MOUSs

Missouri Hall Student Art Gala Winners

Conrad Stoll, Sean Knehans, David Long, and Lauren Reuschel

Closed 5010 Hawley

Missouri Hall Student Art Gala Winners

Congratulations,

Ambrose, P. J. Jeffords

Retrospective

by Katie Poland Stevens

Lil’ Dharma

by Catherine Meyer

The winners of the first annual MO Hall Student Art Gala and a $100 prize. This art will be the first works added to the MO Hall Student Art collection.

INDEX

5

8

10

14

15

16

17

THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 2004

1

3

5

7

Missouri Hall Student Art Gala Winners

Conrad Stoll, Sean Knehans, David Long, and Lauren Reuschel

Closed 5010 Hawley

Missouri Hall Student Art Gala Winners

Congratulations,

Ambrose, P. J. Jeffords

Retrospective

by Katie Poland Stevens

Lil’ Dharma

by Catherine Meyer

The winners of the first annual MO Hall Student Art Gala and a $100 prize. This art will be the first works added to the MO Hall Student Art collection.

INDEX

5

8

10

14

15

16

17

THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 2004

1

3

5

7

Clark Takeuchi, office manager for the Council of Public Libraries; Branda Churchill, director of administration and scholarship programs; and Melissa Mink, student services director.

"What we compete with is not only the whole university but the honors colleges of the other universities.

"This world is changing so rapidly and it is so difficult to assume that if you are preparing for a specific area, your kids are going to be outdated very quickly," he said.

"In addition, a lot of our kids are preparing for the success of Truman students after degree, the skills and experiences gained through the program are beneficial," Temporiti said.

"If someone is an artist, they are doing a creative methodology that is meaningful and they can do that in many different areas," he said.

"Every area is different and there's something that has to be made to suit the area.

"Now a political science student may want to be a lobbyist and another in economics may want to be an accountant. It's not the same thing,

"According to the University of Missouri's Truman

School of Public Service, the trustees have examined its practices and subject students study still have misconceptions about what a liberal arts education is.

"Continued from Page 1

FELON

Man enters Alford pleas in sexual assault

LOCAL

City Council votes to extend 4-year, 3-mile west of Macon 2004 Ordinance, butat least for the next few years, there are no plans to extend the ordinance to new trailer park owners or extend the distance.

LOCAL

Ted Smith

Howard Hickman said disputes are a complicated subject and there are many options. City Attorney

Jim Stuckey said that a noticesystem would be advisable. Hickman said that if a new storage facility would be constructed, it would be something along the lines that a mobile home storage facility.

"The resident

may be the case for some women, but the possibility is limited... the outcome of a Truman student's

Surprised by the declaration, Kincaid said other benefits may be possible.

"We've got to try to get to that whole thing to make it possible for people to live here so that they can get rooms to live in and people can afford to live here. It's difficult to afford to live here if you are not going to be in campus housing.

If we can get to that point where people have housing and there is a place to live, then people will be able to afford to live here," she said.

Ted Smith

Howard Hickman said disputes

are a complicated subject and

there are many options. City Attorney

Jim Stuckey said that a noticesystem

would be advisable. Hickman said

that if a new storage facility would

be constructed, it would be

something along the lines that a

mobile home storage facility.

"The resident

may be the case for some women, but

the possibility is limited... the

outcome of a Truman student's

Surprised by the declaration, Kincaid

said other benefits may be possible.

"We've got to try to get to that

whole thing to make it possible for

people to live here so that they can

get rooms to live in and people can

afford to live here. It's difficult to

afford to live here if you are not going to be in campus housing.

If we can get to that point where

people have housing and there is a place to live, then people will be able to afford to live here," she said.

Ted Smith

Howard Hickman said disputes

are a complicated subject and

there are many options. City Attorney

Jim Stuckey said that a noticesystem

would be advisable. Hickman said

that if a new storage facility would

be constructed, it would be

something along the lines that a

mobile home storage facility.

"The resident

may be the case for some women, but

the possibility is limited... the

outcome of a Truman student's

Surprised by the declaration, Kincaid

said other benefits may be possible.

"We've got to try to get to that

whole thing to make it possible for

people to live here so that they can

get rooms to live in and people can

afford to live here. It's difficult to

afford to live here if you are not going to be in campus housing.

If we can get to that point where

people have housing and there is a place to live, then people will be able to afford to live here," she said.

Ted Smith

Howard Hickman said disputes

are a complicated subject and

there are many options. City Attorney

Jim Stuckey said that a noticesystem

would be advisable. Hickman said

that if a new storage facility would

be constructed, it would be

something along the lines that a

mobile home storage facility.

"The resident

may be the case for some women, but

the possibility is limited... the

outcome of a Truman student's

Surprised by the declaration, Kincaid

said other benefits may be possible.

"We've got to try to get to that

whole thing to make it possible for

people to live here so that they can

get rooms to live in and people can

afford to live here. It's difficult to

afford to live here if you are not going to be in campus housing.

If we can get to that point where

people have housing and there is a place to live, then people will be able to afford to live here," she said.