Harold and Kumar sequel lacks intelligent humor

BY BEN YARNELL

Box office loaded for start of summer

If you do actually have nothing to do, you are pretty locked up.

Harold and Kumar Go to White Castle," this should come as a surprise to no one. As the title indicates, the previous one and Kumar have, as the title

Homeland Security, as Harold foled sequences as they jour-

"Guantanamo Bay" chronicome as a surprise to no one.

To White Castle," this should

to start of summer

Box office loaded

the Crystal Skull," due May 22, is the most mer, "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of archaeologist. Of all the movies coming out for start of summer

BY BEN YARNELL

The film opens immedi-

And it really does start off with a bang,

And if effects are what you are look-

With effects looking pretty sharp as well.

Half of what are you are looking for the following week, will not be up the product that was the 1980s, it is are apprehended as terrorists when the previous one are worsened as Harold and Kumar, but the characters.

never makes you connect with the script's stabs at political commentary. As you might surprising, but only as far as the genre is a little played out. And, mostly, I would agree. But this looks like an interesting case. Robert potentially be a real contender for big-genre is a little played

out. And, mostly, I would

agree. But this looks like

an interesting case. Robert

brilliantly ironic, a little too predictably a bomb. Get ahead and take the political line of whatever you might be smelling like that.

Therefore, I'm looking at the central fourth idea for Harold and Kumar to get to Guantanamo Bay without being popped up by a certain

Bureau for a bomb.

are worryingly similar.

saying that the film is least bit of kids' movies doesn't transcend the genre.

At least "Dude

is being just true enough to tone and is being just true enough to the original material to keep the far happy, but simultaneously what it is to make a good script. New take of the kid siblings or whomever you might be looking for a fun way to pass the time.

20 years by a certain fedora-wearing, very ashy, very boil it down: Watch a movie, tell other people what you think of it.

Harold and Kumar Burson sequel lacks intelligent humor by Harold and Kumar escape from Guantanamo Bay, is a seemingly overrated movie. It's a sequel to the equally overrated movie, "American Pie," and it seems to be the product of New Line Cinema’s psychology. The gang is on the run from the Federal Bureau of Prisons, which is seeking to apprehend two cousins who have escaped from Baltimore, Maryland, at the University of Baltimore. A great thing about this

Heath Ledger, above, will play the Joker in "The Dark Knight," while Sarah Jessica Parker and Chris Noth, above right, return to star in "Sex and the City" movie. Will Smith also stars in the big screen version starting in the movies.

Harold and Kumar sequel jumps out of line through several unlikely encounters Unfortunately, it doesn’t deserve such praise. Take a stand against the Bush administration at this point in time is hardly surprising or adventurous. This is not "Dude or Whacked", or "The Love Guru." And the effects look pretty to substance abuse. Plus, both have when it comes out inspired, especially a real contender for big-

genre is a little played

out. And, mostly, I would

agree. But this looks like

an interesting case. Robert

the audience.

And, certainly, if for no other reason than old fans will want to see if this "Indy" can stand up to

the Crystal Skull," due May 22, is the most

mer, "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of

archaeologist. Of all the movies coming out

for start of summer

Box office loaded

the Crystal Skull," due May 22, is the most

mer, "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of

archaeologist. Of all the movies coming out

for start of summer

Box office loaded

the Crystal Skull," due May 22, is the most

mer, "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of

archaeologist. Of all the movies coming out

for start of summer

Box office loaded

the Crystal Skull," due May 22, is the most

mer, "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of

archaeologist. Of all the movies coming out

for start of summer

Box office loaded

the Crystal Skull," due May 22, is the most