Q&A with Hellogoodbye

We'd like to take a second to introduce ourselves to northeast Missouri.

More bars in more places AT&T has the largest unlimited mobile to mobile calling community in the nation – over 70 million strong.

AT&T has the largest unlimited mobile to mobile calling community in the nation – over 70 million strong.

Only AT&T has Rollover – it’s the fairest deal in wireless.

AT&T has the hottest exclusive device – the Shine™ by LG and BlackJack™ II.

Q: What inspires the band's greatest hits?
A: "It's not really from anything in particular, and it's not actually something you can say anything. It's just, you know, coming and going,Hellogoodbye."

Q: What inspired the music video "In the Heat of Summer"?
A: "It's all just coming from music videos we've seen. I mean, I've been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspired the music video "Visuals"?
A: "I built a studio here at my house, and just kind of taking it slow and hanging out and recording stuff and just kind of letting it, you know, go slow – and not having the whole, like, ‘Oh, you gotta do this right now, kind of thing. So it’s just kind of slow, and it’s a way for us to record for a while and get a record out for the end of the year.”

Q: Have you ever been to the Midwest?
A: "Yeah!

Q: Have you been to small schools before?
A: "Yeah! I mean, we usually don’t play at a lot of colleges right now. We kind of play at colleges right now, but it’s just more that we have to come up with it all. So it’s really just a way to do a music video, and we like... who is the CD art designer? Brodi Lucas.

Q: What was the intended design?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspires the band's music videos?
A: "It’s not really from anything in particular, and it’s not actually something you can say something. It’s just, you know, coming and going, Hellogoodbye."

Q: What inspired the music video "In the Heat of Summer"?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspired the music video "Visuals"?
A: "I built a studio here at my house, and just kind of taking it slow and hanging out and recording stuff and just kind of letting it, you know, go slow – and not having the whole, like, ‘Oh, you gotta do this right now, kind of thing. So it’s just kind of slow, and it’s a way for us to record for a while and get a record out for the end of the year.”

Q: Have you ever been to the Midwest?
A: "Yeah!

Q: Have you been to small schools before?
A: "Yeah! I mean, we usually don’t play at a lot of colleges right now. We kind of play at colleges right now, but it’s just more that we have to come up with it all. So it’s really just a way to do a music video, and we like... who is the CD art designer? Brodi Lucas.

Q: What was the intended design?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspires the band's music videos?
A: "It’s not really from anything in particular, and it’s not actually something you can say something. It’s just, you know, coming and going, Hellogoodbye."

Q: What inspired the music video "In the Heat of Summer"?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspired the music video "Visuals"?
A: "I built a studio here at my house, and just kind of taking it slow and hanging out and recording stuff and just kind of letting it, you know, go slow – and not having the whole, like, ‘Oh, you gotta do this right now, kind of thing. So it’s just kind of slow, and it’s a way for us to record for a while and get a record out for the end of the year.”

Q: Have you ever been to the Midwest?
A: "Yeah!

Q: Have you been to small schools before?
A: "Yeah! I mean, we usually don’t play at a lot of colleges right now. We kind of play at colleges right now, but it’s just more that we have to come up with it all. So it’s really just a way to do a music video, and we like... who is the CD art designer? Brodi Lucas.

Q: What was the intended design?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspires the band's music videos?
A: "It’s not really from anything in particular, and it’s not actually something you can say something. It’s just, you know, coming and going, Hellogoodbye."

Q: What inspired the music video "In the Heat of Summer"?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspired the music video "Visuals"?
A: "I built a studio here at my house, and just kind of taking it slow and hanging out and recording stuff and just kind of letting it, you know, go slow – and not having the whole, like, ‘Oh, you gotta do this right now, kind of thing. So it’s just kind of slow, and it’s a way for us to record for a while and get a record out for the end of the year.”

Q: Have you ever been to the Midwest?
A: "Yeah!

Q: Have you been to small schools before?
A: "Yeah! I mean, we usually don’t play at a lot of colleges right now. We kind of play at colleges right now, but it’s just more that we have to come up with it all. So it’s really just a way to do a music video, and we like... who is the CD art designer? Brodi Lucas.

Q: What was the intended design?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspires the band's music videos?
A: "It’s not really from anything in particular, and it’s not actually something you can say something. It’s just, you know, coming and going, Hellogoodbye."

Q: What inspired the music video "In the Heat of Summer"?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspired the music video "Visuals"?
A: "I built a studio here at my house, and just kind of taking it slow and hanging out and recording stuff and just kind of letting it, you know, go slow – and not having the whole, like, ‘Oh, you gotta do this right now, kind of thing. So it’s just kind of slow, and it’s a way for us to record for a while and get a record out for the end of the year.”

Q: Have you ever been to the Midwest?
A: "Yeah!

Q: Have you been to small schools before?
A: "Yeah! I mean, we usually don’t play at a lot of colleges right now. We kind of play at colleges right now, but it’s just more that we have to come up with it all. So it’s really just a way to do a music video, and we like... who is the CD art designer? Brodi Lucas.

Q: What was the intended design?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspires the band's music videos?
A: "It’s not really from anything in particular, and it’s not actually something you can say something. It’s just, you know, coming and going, Hellogoodbye."

Q: What inspired the music video "In the Heat of Summer"?
A: "It’s all just coming from music videos we’ve seen. I mean, I’ve been into Lilo & Stitch, and stuff.

Q: What inspired the music video "Visuals"? 