Season ends with 3-0 loss to UNO in first round.

BY RYAN TURNER
Staff Writer

Having saved the University of Nebraska-Omaha a season-longugg ting the Bulldogs the 2003-04 season, the team followed a trend in the MIAA this season. The Mavericks came out on top in the MIAA, finishing the season with a 1-0-3 record and tying for the conference championship. The Bulldogs' 3-0 loss to UNO in the first round of the NCAA Tournament eliminated the Bulldogs for the fourth time in five years.

The Bulldogs were frustrated by UNO's strong attack all day. UNO scored its first goal in the 72nd minute, giving the Mavericks a 3-0 lead in the match. Their defense was again a key part of the Bulldogs' 3-0 loss. UNO's strong attack was too soon for the Bulldogs to handle.

Although the Bulldogs will lose both Newsham and Roark, they have plenty of talented returning seniors. The team's top two scoring threats are back - Newsham and Roark. The Bulldogs have plenty of talent returning next season. The team's top two scoring threats are back - Newsham and Roark. The Bulldogs have plenty of talent returning next season.

Sophomore forward Lisa Nadeau works around a defender in a late-season game. The women's soccer team concluded its season with a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

BY RYAN TURNER
Staff Writer

The women's soccer team's season came to an anticlimactic end. The Bulldogs (13-1-2) were bumped from the NCAA Tournament with a 3-0 loss to UNO on Saturday in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs had high hopes going into the tournament, but they were eliminated in the opening round.

The season came to an end for everyone on the Bulldogs, but not one person was more disappointed than the team's top scorer, graduating player Emily Roark. Roark's career with the Bulldogs was described by graduating player Emily Roark as a good player — she could play at a lot of different positions.

Roark's achievements were not ignored by conference voters, as she was named to the all-conference first team. Roark's senior season was a big accomplishment for the team.

The women's soccer team's season ended with a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs were frustrated by UNO's strong attack all day. UNO scored its first goal in the 72nd minute, giving the Mavericks a 3-0 lead in the match. Their defense was again a key part of the Bulldogs' 3-0 loss. UNO's strong attack was too soon for the Bulldogs to handle.

Although the Bulldogs will lose both Newsham and Roark, they have plenty of talented returning seniors. The team's top two scoring threats are back - Newsham and Roark. The Bulldogs have plenty of talent returning next season.

Sophomore forward Lisa Nadeau works around a defender in a late-season game. The women's soccer team concluded its season with a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. The women's soccer team concluded its season with a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

BY RYAN TURNER
Staff Writer

The women's soccer team's season came to an anticlimactic end. The Bulldogs (13-1-2) were bumped from the NCAA Tournament with a 3-0 loss to UNO on Saturday in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs had high hopes going into the tournament, but they were eliminated in the opening round.

The season came to an end for everyone on the Bulldogs, but not one person was more disappointed than the team's top scorer, graduating player Emily Roark. Roark's career with the Bulldogs was described by graduating player Emily Roark as a good player — she could play at a lot of different positions.

Roark's achievements were not ignored by conference voters, as she was named to the all-conference first team. Roark's senior season was a big accomplishment for the team.

The women's soccer team's season ended with a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs were frustrated by UNO's strong attack all day. UNO scored its first goal in the 72nd minute, giving the Mavericks a 3-0 lead in the match. Their defense was again a key part of the Bulldogs' 3-0 loss. UNO's strong attack was too soon for the Bulldogs to handle.

Although the Bulldogs will lose both Newsham and Roark, they have plenty of talented returning seniors. The team's top two scoring threats are back - Newsham and Roark. The Bulldogs have plenty of talent returning next season.

Sophomore forward Lisa Nadeau works around a defender in a late-season game. The women's soccer team concluded its season with a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. The women's soccer team concluded its season with a loss in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.