BY JACK NICHOLL

The cross country season is not quite finished for junior Danna Kelly. After a year of hard work and dedication, she qualified for nationals for the second consecutive year. "I’m very proud of what we’ve accomplished as a team in 2004," Thompson said. "We ended the season on a high note after the first race. Now we can pick up where we left off and move forward to the next season."}

Junior Danna Kelly punched her ticket to nationals Saturday. She finished sixth to earn the bid.}

BY JACK NICHOLL

Amanda Tharp

Bonnie Frisch

Brendon Galbreath

Caitlin Corrigan

Caroline Paillou

Chelsy Shaul

BY JACK NICHOLL

Steve Coker performed the breast stroke during the swimming teams' Saturday dual meet against Indianapolis. The men's team lost to the University of Indianapolis, 109-94, and the women's team defeated the Grenadiers, 197-109.

Junior Danna Kelly punched her ticket to nationals during the cross country meet last weekend. She finished sixth to qualify for nationals, and the Panthers finished eighth out of 16 teams at the regional meet.

Kelly advances to national meet

Junior Danna Kelly punched her ticket to nationals Saturday. She finished sixth to earn the bid.

Truman Athletics

News and Notes

Women's soccer: Team piles up MIAA awards

It was another gaudy week for the women's soccer team. After their recent success in the MIAA titles, they also collected four individual awards at the awards ceremony.

After anchoring the relay and not finishing eighth out of 16 teams at the regional meet, Samantha Cochrane said the team needed to improve its performance. "We need to step up our games in the 50-yard freestyle," she said. "We know that on different days people run their best."

It's different every year. The team's top two runners who were not eligible for nationals had she finished at regionals, and the team's top two runners who were not eligible for nationals had she finished at regionals. She qualified for nationals by one spot.

Kelly advanced to national meet three times in the last four years. For the third time in the last four years, she qualified for nationals by one spot.

Junior Danna Kelly punched her ticket to nationals during the cross country meet last weekend. She finished sixth to qualify for nationals, and the Panthers finished eighth out of 16 teams at the regional meet.

Junior Danna Kelly punched her ticket to nationals Saturday. She finished sixth to earn the bid.

Junior Danna Kelly punched her ticket to nationals Saturday. She finished sixth to earn the bid.