ARRESTS

Continued from Page 1

The Eureka Times-Star and The Life of the Student has an arrest log that can be seen online for students and faculty members. The police are continually investigating potential cases of violence.

drug charges against a student in connection with a robbery that occurred on campus. The student has been identified as a male, 19-years-old, and a resident of Kansas City, Mo.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the University Police Department at 265-2300.

BUDGET

Senator seeks student opinion in allotment of funds

The Student Senate Committee on finance is currently in the process of allocating funds to various student organizations. The committee is seeking input from students on how they would like to see the funds distributed.

Senatortour.com is a website where students can vote on how they would like the funds to be allocated. The website is open for voting until the end of the semester.

Visit Senatortour.com to cast your vote and have your say in the allocation of student funds.

ASSAULT

Police still searching for suspects in student's assault

Police are continuing to investigate an assault that occurred on campus. The victim reported being attacked by an unknown individual while walking on campus.

The police are urging anyone with information about the assault to contact the campus police department. They are offering a reward for any information that leads to an arrest.

Stay tuned for updates on this ongoing investigation.

INDEX

Harshel alcohol laws enforced in residential halls

The University of Missouri has implemented stricter alcohol policies in its residential halls. The new policies include increased monitoring and stricter consequences for violations.

The university is hoping that these changes will help reduce alcohol-related problems on campus.

If you have any questions or concerns about the new alcohol policies, please contact your hall director or the campus police department.

INDEX

NEWMAN

Continued from Page 1

The state paid $6,250 Monday for the purchase of the Missouri Hall. The money was used to renovate the building, which will be used as temporary housing for the Missouri Hall.

The university is currently in the process of renovating the building, which will include the addition of a new elevator and updated electrical systems.

Visit Newmanuniversity.edu for more information on the renovation of Missouri Hall.

People still searching for suspects in student's assault

Police are continuing to investigate an assault that occurred on campus. The victim reported being attacked by an unknown individual while walking on campus.

The police are urging anyone with information about the assault to contact the campus police department. They are offering a reward for any information that leads to an arrest.

Stay tuned for updates on this ongoing investigation.

INDEX

BUDGET

Senator seeks student opinion in allotment of funds

The Student Senate Committee on finance is currently in the process of allocating funds to various student organizations. The committee is seeking input from students on how they would like to see the funds distributed.

Senatortour.com is a website where students can vote on how they would like the funds to be allocated. The website is open for voting until the end of the semester.

Visit Senatortour.com to cast your vote and have your say in the allocation of student funds.

ASSAULT

Police still searching for suspects in student's assault

Police are continuing to investigate an assault that occurred on campus. The victim reported being attacked by an unknown individual while walking on campus.

The police are urging anyone with information about the assault to contact the campus police department. They are offering a reward for any information that leads to an arrest.

Stay tuned for updates on this ongoing investigation.

INDEX

NEWMAN

Continued from Page 1

The state paid $6,250 Monday for the purchase of the Missouri Hall. The money was used to renovate the building, which will be used as temporary housing for the Missouri Hall.

The university is currently in the process of renovating the building, which will include the addition of a new elevator and updated electrical systems.

Visit Newmanuniversity.edu for more information on the renovation of Missouri Hall.

People still searching for suspects in student's assault

Police are continuing to investigate an assault that occurred on campus. The victim reported being attacked by an unknown individual while walking on campus.

The police are urging anyone with information about the assault to contact the campus police department. They are offering a reward for any information that leads to an arrest.

Stay tuned for updates on this ongoing investigation.