Three businesses cited for underage alcohol sale

BY DIANE FOEHLER
Assistant News Editor

Three Kirksville establishments have been cited with selling alcohol to minors.

The Missouri State Liquor Control Board has cited Abel's Liquor, Too Tall's, and the Pershing Bar for selling alcohol to underage patrons.

Abel's Liquor, located at 422 East Main Street, was cited on April 15 for selling alcohol to a minor who was accompanied by an adult.

Too Tall's, located at 1206 South Main Street, was cited on May 12 for selling alcohol to a minor who was accompanied by an adult.

The Pershing Bar, located at 1222 South Main Street, was cited on May 12 for selling alcohol to an unaccompanied minor.

The citations were the result of undercover operations by the Missouri State Liquor Control Board agents.

The agents posed as minors and were able to purchase alcohol from each establishment.

The establishments have 15 days to appeal the citations.

The Missouri State Liquor Control Board is responsible for enforcing the state's alcohol laws and ensuring that businesses are complying with the regulations.

The board's mission is to protect public health, safety, and welfare by regulating the sale, distribution, and consumption of alcoholic beverages in Missouri.

The citations will result in fines and possible suspension or revocation of the establishments' liquor licenses.

The Missouri State Liquor Control Board is committed to enforcing the state's laws and ensuring that businesses are following the regulations to protect the public.