Crisis in North Korea deserves greater awareness

Tru Rants

What makes you mad? Excited? Annoyed? Happy! (Do we share, it with other Index readers? Send us an e-mail and get your saying on the Index. Noпроизносит.

Why should I have to pay a $35 graduation fee to graduate from this place? I finish one requirement just to have two more thrown at me. All I want is to do is get out of here.

Criminalizing “sexy texting” offers no solutions for teens

Ethical treatment of pets benefits animals, citizens

French strikes provide lesson in political activism

Chris Boning
This may be the most reasonable explanation for the strikes that have been going on in France for the past seven weeks.

There are words spoken by Madame Zita Luise, a small and astute political economist, to which the French government may wish to listen carefully.

On Sunday, I attended a screening of the film “Crossing,” the moving story of a North Korean woman who came to the U.S. and fled a brutal, tyrannical government. “Crossing,” produced by the Kilkis City High School chapter of Animal Right Action, is an educational film about the importance of political rights organization working to bring justice to the suffering citizens of that country.

The organization from LNK (LiNK: Linking to North Korea), a campus-based organization, held the film screening in my city. The filmmaker, Alexia Belgrad, described the situation that is currently occurring in North Korea. “Crossing” was a powerful documentary about the suffering of a woman who came to the U.S. and fled a brutal, tyrannical government, and was just one of the many films that were shown.

Still, none of this compared to the real-life experiences that the organization has had in North Korea. North Korea is a country mentioned in the Western media on occasion, and regardless of your political leanings, you know that human rights are violated all over the world.

Crisis in North Korea deserves greater awareness

Tru Rants

What makes you mad? Excited? Annoyed? Happy! (Do we share, it with other Index readers? Send us an e-mail and get your saying on the Index. No произносит.

Why should I have to pay a $35 graduation fee to graduate from this place? I finish one requirement just to have two more thrown at me. All I want is to do is get out of here.

Criminalizing “sexy texting” offers no solutions for teens

Ethical treatment of pets benefits animals, citizens

French strikes provide lesson in political activism

Chris Boning
This may be the most reasonable explanation for the strikes that have been going on in France for the past seven weeks.

There are words spoken by Madame Zita Luise, a small and astute political economist, to which the French government may wish to listen carefully.

On Sunday, I attended a screening of the film “Crossing,” the moving story of a North Korean woman who came to the U.S. and fled a brutal, tyrannical government. “Crossing,” produced by the Kilkis City High School chapter of Animal Right Action, is an educational film about the importance of political rights organization working to bring justice to the suffering citizens of that country.

The organization from LNK (LiNK: Linking to North Korea), a campus-based organization, held the film screening in my city. The filmmaker, Alexia Belgrad, described the situation that is currently occurring in North Korea. “Crossing” was a powerful documentary about the suffering of a woman who came to the U.S. and fled a brutal, tyrannical government, and was just one of the many films that were shown.

Still, none of this compared to the real-life experiences that the organization has had in North Korea. North Korea is a country mentioned in the Western media on occasion, and regardless of your political leanings, you know that human rights are violated all over the world.

Crisis in North Korea deserves greater awareness

Tru Rants

What makes you mad? Excited? Annoyed? Happy! (Do we share, it with other Index readers? Send us an e-mail and get your saying on the Index. No произносит.

Why should I have to pay a $35 graduation fee to graduate from this place? I finish one requirement just to have two more thrown at me. All I want is to do is get out of here.

Criminalizing “sexy texting” offers no solutions for teens

Ethical treatment of pets benefits animals, citizens

French strikes provide lesson in political activism

Ethical treatment of pets benefits animals, citizens

Zach Vicas
All sex is wrong because the law says so. I don’t subscribe to the law as I don’t think it is right. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

I pot out of the control from the start and in the act itself. I am a person, not a sexual being. If I do not want to have gay sex it is my right and it is not criminal. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

The desire to be in an intimate relationship with another person is healthy and normal. I want to be with someone who makes me happy. If I do not want to have gay sex it is my right and it is not criminal. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

The desire to be in an intimate relationship with another person is healthy and normal. I want to be with someone who makes me happy. If I do not want to have gay sex it is my right and it is not criminal. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

Zach Vicas
I do not support the idea of gay marriage and I don’t think it is right. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

I pot out of the control from the start and in the act itself. I am a person, not a sexual being. If I do not want to have gay sex it is my right and it is not criminal. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

The desire to be in an intimate relationship with another person is healthy and normal. I want to be with someone who makes me happy. If I do not want to have gay sex it is my right and it is not criminal. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

Zach Vicas
I do not support the idea of gay marriage and I don’t think it is right. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

I pot out of the control from the start and in the act itself. I am a person, not a sexual being. If I do not want to have gay sex it is my right and it is not criminal. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.

The desire to be in an intimate relationship with another person is healthy and normal. I want to be with someone who makes me happy. If I do not want to have gay sex it is my right and it is not criminal. I am gay and I have been for as long as I can remember.