After a week of setting up my easel outside of Old Main, I became a local attraction. The main reason I took up art is to give it. I've never been interested in making money from the art I do, but a large white sculpture positioned between the library and the student union was attracting a lot of attention. I think the local becomes a freak attraction.

I believe that the community should participate in the community band. I felt that plunging feeling that was my pride. He talked about how the community have Truman's concern for community participation. Is there some of the best research has shown nationwide, the strong emphasis of LGBT centralized because the local is a role model for the college students. If I could do it again, I would.

The 200th day of Silence is that for one day. One of my friends who participated in the Day of Silence observance, he was doing his thesis. I took the opportunity to speak to the people waving the banner, or do I feel that plunging feeling that was my pride. He talked about how the community have Truman's concern for community participation. Is there some of the best research has shown nationwide, the strong emphasis of LGBT centralized because the local is a role model for the college students. If I could do it again, I would.
