continued from page 1

powers that be enough to solve the University budget crisis."

Blalock said the FAC members were upset that they were allotted money.

"If we did need to fund JujiTSU, we would have less than 24 hours to

JujiTSU’s grievance at the Student Senate meeting was addressed by

Students on campus would not guarantee the safety of students and faculty without some proactive training, which would not make a dent in preventing a shooting situation any other way. The best way to prevent a shooting is to make sure firearms are only used during training sessions or at the range, according to

Continued from page 1

President Carnahan but that he has not yet been approached about

Ashcroft's role in changing the name."

Ashcroft, Carnahan, and McClain are

Steve Baca said it would be helpful to get into the head of a student to

<./.>

"It seems like this is just a bad idea from the student perspective, the administration, and the faculty."

Jillian Flanagan (see stories below)