The Truman softball team ended its disappointing season with a cancellation.

The Bulldogs were scheduled to face a non-conference opponent against Crowder College on Thursday. However, due to rain on the field and the Bulldogs' recent travel, the game was not played. The Bulldogs had already beaten Kansas City (1-0) and St. Mary's, 6-0, this season. The team will have a conference tournament. The Dogs played their first game and fell to Fort Scott Community College, 2-0, and won against Pittsburg State University, 4-2. For the season, the Bulldogs went 11-21.

The Bulldogs' schedule is filled with two losses to Missouri Southern State University. The Bulldogs went 0-6 against the MIAA teams this season. The team finished the season with a 3-12 overall record. They are ranked 14th in the regional rankings, and 16th in the MIAA standings.
