Making sure all their bills were paid.”

Years making great deal of fun. I spent the better part of two mated to living in France, and that was just a study abroad experience. They hired me at to interact with students.

Move still allowed her the opportunity to in-

France as a result of her hus-

12 to 13 years of our lives.”

“Then from Ann Ar-

sor of French,] and I began our married life at Truman was unexpected. Thomas said she originally thought his-at Truman for three to four years.

“His job at Carrollton College was to take

Local Resident Charles Tharp discovered artifacts such as arrowheads and pottery in his backyard.

“Around on the Chariton River, it’s good

Washington grade school, to replace an in big ways and small, how to help students realize student achievement.

Thomas said her greatest

“Every time a new class of students come

“Every time a new class of students come

“I’m on campus a lot, and I do enjoy it,

BY STEPHEN MAR

“Every time a new class of students come

“Every time a new class of students come

Local Resident Charles Tharp discovered artifacts such as arrowheads and pottery in his backyard.

BY STEPHEN MAR

“Every time a new class of students come

“Every time a new class of students come

Local Resident Charles Tharp discovered artifacts such as arrowheads and pottery in his backyard.

BY STEPHEN MAR

“Every time a new class of students come

“Every time a new class of students come

Local Resident Charles Tharp discovered artifacts such as arrowheads and pottery in his backyard.