Filchev sees increased minutes

The team travels to Pella, Iowa, for its first tournament of the season, the Central College Open this fall. The Bulldogs, ranked No. 2 in the nation, will look to go to a second straight dual meet title this fall.

The dual meet format allows the Bulldogs to practice for dual meets during the break so they can be ready for the season.

The Bulldogs have a strong history of success in the dual meet format, winning 18 of their last 19 dual meets.

The Bulldogs have a strong record in the Central College Open, finishing in the top 10 in the past five seasons.

The dual meet format allows the Bulldogs to practice for dual meets during the break so they can be ready for the season.

The Bulldogs have a strong history of success in the dual meet format, winning 18 of their last 19 dual meets.

The Bulldogs have a strong record in the Central College Open, finishing in the top 10 in the past five seasons.

The dual meet format allows the Bulldogs to practice for dual meets during the break so they can be ready for the season.

The Bulldogs have a strong history of success in the dual meet format, winning 18 of their last 19 dual meets.

The Bulldogs have a strong record in the Central College Open, finishing in the top 10 in the past five seasons.

The dual meet format allows the Bulldogs to practice for dual meets during the break so they can be ready for the season.

The Bulldogs have a strong history of success in the dual meet format, winning 18 of their last 19 dual meets.

The Bulldogs have a strong record in the Central College Open, finishing in the top 10 in the past five seasons.

The dual meet format allows the Bulldogs to practice for dual meets during the break so they can be ready for the season.

The Bulldogs have a strong history of success in the dual meet format, winning 18 of their last 19 dual meets.

The Bulldogs have a strong record in the Central College Open, finishing in the top 10 in the past five seasons.