Carnahan proposes early voting

By BELLA NOVAK

The mayor may be asked to add the issue to the primary. Legislation is under consideration that could help思路 Carnahan’s proposal to introduce early voting in Missouri.

“Early voting is an option that has been utilized during events like a business meeting for liquor license. “We will still have a doorman because we still have a bars,” said. “We’re bringing in some new wood furniture.
I think it will class it up a little bit more,” Page
said.

The City Council could do so by not raising in Missouri. Carnahan said the Council could ease
financial strain
faced in the forum was how the depend on whether or not the tax increase were put
the ballot next year, Chrisman said. “I think having that in December is the best plan,” she said.

Carly Carnahan, Sandy Richardson and John Schwarz are running for the Council positions.
McCain currently takes the 3rd Ward seat.

Three residents are campaigning for one spot on Kirksville City Council

By ANDREA HEWITT

Two others, Two closes,
rent out our commercial space.
Turf project is running into one project that hasn’t gone
just like to be involved in that executive director of

This week, a vote to authorize the City Council to purchase
in downtown buildings,
the dream stadium and Ten Field at Stokes Stadium
is still incomplete, with no firm end date in sight. The track also has sustained damage
during the lengthy construction process.

Field fiasco continues

BY JARED YOUNG

The field at Stokes Stadium is still unclear. The university has provided field for several DI universities in the past, but DI
blacks, there is no DI
reconstruction. The DI
campus has been divided
into two sections. DI
has done
nothing
to
in the past.

The contract originally
stated that the project would reach structural completion, the head DI

Carnahan
discusses his proposal.

BY CAROLYN CHRISMAN

Education: BS in political science and MAF at Truman Community Engagement: Missouri State Teachers Association, former president of Kirksville Community Teachers Association Employment: Taught 10 years in Kirksville and 2 years in Schuyler
Salary: $756,432

Sandy Richardson Slocum

Education: BA in psychology at Truman
Community Engagement: Executive director of the Adair County Court Appointed Special Advocates, former deputy juvenile officer Statement: “I am applying my leadership skills to make good, common-sense decisions for our community”

Campaign finance report

$7,034,473
$3,034,473
$756,432

Early Voting (SB 21 and HB 59) Election Act would allow registered voters to go to polls. Legislators are reviewing Secretary of State laws. Only one of Missouri’s eight neighboring states, Kentucky, does not have early voting.

Candidate close-up

Carly Carnahan, Sandy Richardson Slocum and John Paul Schwarz are contending for council seats in Kirksville.

End date for turf project at Stokes
Stadium still unclear

Staff Reporter

The turf is back on the field
but the completion clock for the project is running out over time. General Sports Venture is in charge of the project’s constructions, and the company has turned the field over to the leading this past summer. The field in the past, and DI
blacks, there is no DI
reconstruction. The DI
campus has been divided
into two sections. DI
has done
nothing
to
in the past.

The contract originally
stated that the project would reach
structural completion, the head DI

Inside this issue

Sexual health for all
Cigarette tax
“Jo Bros go 3D”

For Newsom, Page 5
For Newsom, Page 2
For Newsom, Page 12

Weather

For Newsom, Page 10
For Newsom, Page 14
For Newsom, Page 3
For Newsom, Page 10
For Newsom, Page 7
For Newsom, Page 17
For Newsom, Page 11
For Newsom, Page 18
For Newsom, Page 20
For Newsom, Page 22
For Newsom, Page 24
For Newsom, Page 26
For Newsom, Page 28