BY STEPHANIE HALL

Phi Kappa Theta is taking on a new tradition for a good cause. At the beginning of November, the members of Phi Kappa Theta is hoping to raise the right to shave for some money for Children’s Miracle Network. Members are not allowed to shave for the cause if they have already reached their donation goal. Before this, Beta Theta Psi is the only interesting thing that happened. Hopefully, we can raise the people’s attention for this cause. Each member doesn’t have their own donation during the month of November. People can call us or email us to sponsor them,” Starke said. “We interact withPhi Kappa Theta grows     Facial hair for Children's Miracle Network

BY STEPHANIE HALL

Phi Kappa Theta is taking on a new tradition for a good cause. At the beginning of November, the members of Phi Kappa Theta is hoping to raise the right to shave for some money for Children’s Miracle Network. Members are not allowed to shave for the cause if they have already reached their donation goal. Before this, Beta Theta Psi is the only interesting thing that happened. Hopefully, we can raise the people’s attention for this cause. Each member doesn’t have their own donation during the month of November. People can call us or email us to sponsor them,” Starke said. “We interact with

BY PAUL BISCHOFF

Nov. 21, 8 p.m.     107.5 Concert     Vintage Grooves

What does “go green” mean to you? For some, it means recycling or cutting back on water and electricity. For others, it means buying organic products or choosing to take a bus rather than driving a car. For others, it can mean saving money by buying used clothing or buying local produce. Whatever it means, there are plenty of ways to be environmentally friendly.

BY PAUL BISCHOFF

Nov. 21, 8 p.m.     107.5 Concert     Vintage Grooves