Students attending the University of Missouri are choosing their next governor, as well as representatives for both houses of the Missouri legislature. It is an important duty that has the potential to influence the state of Missouri within the next few years, voters will ask, “should I vote to approve this bond issue or not?”

Editorial Board consists of the editor in chief, managing editor, news editor, business manager and opinions editor. The Index reserves the right to edit submitted material because of space limitations, repetitive subject matter, libelous content or any other reason the editor in chief deems appropriate. Submitted material is not guaranteed publication. The Index does not publish anonymous letters to the editor. The Index does not publish letters to the editor that contain obscenities or language that is considered offensive to a significant segment of the community.

In 1994, casinos tricked Missouri's legislature into approving $200 million in so-called "supposed funds" to our public schools. Every year since, casinos have paid $0 toward that debt. It is not a300 million, it was $0. A story on page 15 of the Oct. 30 issue of the Index misspelled the name of senior De Crockett. A story on page 15 of the Oct. 30 issue of the Index misspelled the name of senior De Crockett. The Index apologizes for the error. If you notice an error in the Index, please e-mail index@truman.edu, call us at 660-785-4449, or visit www.index.truman.edu.

A story on page 15 of the Oct. 30 issue of the Index contained a paragraph to which the name of the candidate for governor was not attributed. The paragraph should have read: “Nixon has done an admirable job as Attorney General. He is now running for governor.”

A story on page 15 of the Oct. 30 issue of the Index misstated the name of senior De Crockett. The Index apologizes for the error. If you notice an error in the Index, please e-mail index@truman.edu, call us at 660-785-4449, or visit www.index.truman.edu.

A story on page 15 of the Oct. 30 issue of the Index contains a paragraph to which the name of the candidate for governor was not attributed. The paragraph should have read: “Nixon has done an admirable job as Attorney General. He is now running for governor.”

A story on page 15 of the Oct. 30 issue of the Index misstated the name of senior De Crockett. The Index apologizes for the error. If you notice an error in the Index, please e-mail index@truman.edu, call us at 660-785-4449, or visit www.index.truman.edu.