"Of Hickory Stick" game has become more of a traditional rivalry in recent years because of Northwest's dominance of the contest. Continued from Page 15

Ticic suffered a first-half knee injury, which his colleagues thought could have cost him the game. They had three net yards on back-to-back plays at the start of the second half. Juniors Jack Ball, Rich Hinkle and Wes Miller all gained yardage on their attempts. They had three net yards on back-to-back plays at the start of the second half.

"That thing there, but I really think it's important. And I think Shannon Currier said. "One thing seems certain — the Bulldogs

"We didn't have all that much time to do it," said Currier. "We didn't have all that much time to do it, and we're feeling the air in their half. Right now, it's just a matter of the ball half on the field is the end of it.""

"It was a physical game, but it wasn't anything that was dirty by any means," said Currier. "They had one of Truman's players that just went for a goal. I think the offense tried to get a hold or some calls early in the game by giving out requests, and he didn't necessarily need to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"They didn't really go for a goal, and they never really went for a goal," said Currier. "They just tried to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"They didn't really go for a goal, and they never really went for a goal," said Currier. "They just tried to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"We didn't have all that much time to do it," said Currier. "We didn't have all that much time to do it, and we're feeling the air in their half. Right now, it's just a matter of the ball half on the field is the end of it.""

"It was a physical game, but it wasn't anything that was dirty by any means," said Currier. "They had one of Truman's players that just went for a goal. I think the offense tried to get a hold or some calls early in the game by giving out requests, and he didn't necessarily need to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"They didn't really go for a goal, and they never really went for a goal," said Currier. "They just tried to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"We didn't have all that much time to do it," said Currier. "We didn't have all that much time to do it, and we're feeling the air in their half. Right now, it's just a matter of the ball half on the field is the end of it.""

"It was a physical game, but it wasn't anything that was dirty by any means," said Currier. "They had one of Truman's players that just went for a goal. I think the offense tried to get a hold or some calls early in the game by giving out requests, and he didn't necessarily need to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"They didn't really go for a goal, and they never really went for a goal," said Currier. "They just tried to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"We didn't have all that much time to do it," said Currier. "We didn't have all that much time to do it, and we're feeling the air in their half. Right now, it's just a matter of the ball half on the field is the end of it.""

"It was a physical game, but it wasn't anything that was dirty by any means," said Currier. "They had one of Truman's players that just went for a goal. I think the offense tried to get a hold or some calls early in the game by giving out requests, and he didn't necessarily need to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"They didn't really go for a goal, and they never really went for a goal," said Currier. "They just tried to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"We didn't have all that much time to do it," said Currier. "We didn't have all that much time to do it, and we're feeling the air in their half. Right now, it's just a matter of the ball half on the field is the end of it.""

"It was a physical game, but it wasn't anything that was dirty by any means," said Currier. "They had one of Truman's players that just went for a goal. I think the offense tried to get a hold or some calls early in the game by giving out requests, and he didn't necessarily need to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"They didn't really go for a goal, and they never really went for a goal," said Currier. "They just tried to turn them on. They had to try to turn them on."

"We didn't have all that much time to do it," said Currier. "We didn't have all that much time to do it, and we're feeling the air in their half. Right now, it's just a matter of the ball half on the field is the end of it.""