No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.

No "person, parents especially, should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others."

Parents have the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children. I understand that some people may not agree or what is right for the nation, especially with a volatile political climate. Even seemingly innocuous matters can become controversial. There is no need to alter the Ryle Hall cafeteria, or to alter the name of the house. Everyone has the right to do whatever they see fit when it comes to raising their children, and it just so happens that this is what I want to do. The way the students and faculty feel is not my place to force. It is their place to do what they see fit, and I would be encouraged to do what I see fit. Parents especially should let their own beliefs affect the lives of others.