BY BLAISE HART SCHMIDT
Staff Reporter

Residents of Adair County, and the Truman campus are in mourning.

Senior Tyler Menz said he was diagnosed with H1N1 last Friday.

"I woke up Friday morning with a terribly high fever. In only an hour I felt ill, the worst headache, I felt really sick," Menz said. "I woke up Friday morning with a terribly high fever. In only an hour I felt ill, the worst headache, I felt really sick," Menz said. "The now 1-year-old is a Missouri resident who attended Southside Baptist Church, where Rodgerson’s bond was set at $10,000.

"It was a regular exam and he diagnosed me with H1N1," said Menz. "I wasn’t looking for a job and had no intention of leaving when the position will begin next fall. It just seemed to fall into place here. It just seemed to fall into place here. It just seemed to fall into place here.

The original version of Sen. Ryan McKenna’s bill did not impose any age restriction. The current law prevents underage drivers, or those under 21, from texting while driving.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The new Missouri law bans texting while driving for those under 21 years old.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The new Missouri law bans texting while driving for those under 21 years old.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The law, which went into effect Aug. 28, prohibits drivers under 21 years old from texting while driving. The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23rd state to ban texting while driving for those under 21.

The penalty for breaking this law is a $200 fine. Missouri is the 23r