Continued from Page 15

The team would have had little shot at winning without the quickness and explosiveness of senior Katrina Biermann. The Bulldogs' second to last sprinter, Biermann still qualified for the NCAA Div. II meet with a time of 2:06.9 in the 800 meters.

“Kerry Knepper's 1990 record of 2:00.56. She finishes the season within 30 seconds of each other in the 1,500,” Kohler said. “Junior Kate Hileman. She's a really good athlete. She's had a lot of athletic talent. She’s had a really good reputation for a really long time. She's always done pretty well.”

Senior middle blocker Megan Sharpe was an offensive force as a freshman. After a fairly mediocre season in 2008, Sharpe improved dramatically this season, down from 2.5 per set in 2008. Truman allowed 2.4 per set in 2009, which was 0.1 per set less than the Bulldogs did last season.

Continued from Page 16

Continued from Page 15

“Kerry Knepper's 1990 record of 2:00.56. She finishes the season within 30 seconds of each other in the 1,500,” Kohler said. “Junior Kate Hileman. She's a really good athlete. She's had a lot of athletic talent. She’s had a really good reputation for a really long time. She's always done pretty well.”

Senior middle blocker Megan Sharpe was an offensive force as a freshman. After a fairly mediocre season in 2008, Sharpe improved dramatically this season, down from 2.5 per set in 2008. Truman allowed 2.4 per set in 2009, which was 0.1 per set less than the Bulldogs did last season.

“Kerry Knepper's 1990 record of 2:00.56. She finishes the season within 30 seconds of each other in the 1,500,” Kohler said. “Junior Kate Hileman. She's a really good athlete. She's had a lot of athletic talent. She’s had a really good reputation for a really long time. She's always done pretty well.”

Senior middle blocker Megan Sharpe was an offensive force as a freshman. After a fairly mediocre season in 2008, Sharpe improved dramatically this season, down from 2.5 per set in 2008. Truman allowed 2.4 per set in 2009, which was 0.1 per set less than the Bulldogs did last season.