Men defeat Hannibal 89-74

Basketball team now 3-4 after picking up early conference win Saturday

By JACK NICHOLL

The men’s basketball team had five players in double figures and rallied to a 89-74 win last night against Hannibal-LaCrosse College.

The Trojans (3-4) finally pulled from the Trojans in the second half but Truman control-ed the game throughout.

Junior guard Alastair Schroeder broke the game for the Bulldogs. Ellin scored 18 points and added the assist. Freshman guard John Cochrane added 17 points and the assist. Cochrane combo combined for seven made baskets.

Junior guard Derek Atwood also in front of the court.

Truman also in front of the court.

Atwood, Van Delft mark top returners

Saturday said. “It’s all about timing power position,” Hardesty breaking it down out of the ners at Truman.

school to rotational spination from gliders in high this season after transisues to work on entering Hardesty said both throw-

Cyclone Holiday Classic in season starts Friday at the coach John Cochrane not-last spring reveals just two came up big for the Bulldogs.

but junior forward Andrew James the green light, and that also re-ing within the offense.

said the team did a good job scor-threes on 58 percent shooting.

Norton scored 15 points. The five assists. Freshman guard Tom the second half, but Truman con-rolled to a 89-74 win last night

BY JACK NICHOLL

Math:

 índex

Elements in the races, he’s going to be

Consistently through the

after Schrum studied abroad to do at the end of last year

He got better at running by making the team.

He said he doesn’t need the stress.

He’s still learning. He only has a with 20 or more minutes.

A challenge for Van Delft is isn’t in the middle of the a good thrower,” Schrader said. “I by making the team. He what they do. Obvi-

is that — just putting it all between each other. Atwood said the transi-

us and both throwers are using their legs more, so

took him about two years.

Although both Atwood

and Van Delft have trained together every season but says he doesn’t think the new boosting programs will affect their throwing.

A quick glance at the Tro-

man men’s results at the season track meet last week. It’s a to worry so much about technique. I know the talent is to do at the end of last year

Schrader said. “The Trojans

by taking advantage of some your legs swap,” Hardesty said.

Atwood said the transi-

of the team. Schrum placed er leading returner for

Department of Education in 2009.

Elementary Education:

MIAA Admissions Update

Congratulations to the students who were accepted for admission into the Master of Arts in Coaching program in 2009.

Art. Vanita Weber. Elementary Education: Stephanie Ahrens-Mills, Sara

Annual馘es: Brian Berg, Kari Brandt, Brittany Brands, Ashley Brinyes, Elise Jushch, Samantha Callahan, Matthew

Student Teaching: John Cochrane not-

He is a student-teacher was the second event. I have projected hot-shot to that’s really what you

good thrower,” Hardesty said.

the Trojans and that’s all

A challenge for Van Delft is

in the races, he’s going to be

Consistently through the

after Schrum studied abroad to do at the end of last year

He got better at running

by making the team. He

what they do. Obvi-

is that — just putting it all

between each other. Atwood said the transi-

us and both throwers are

using their legs more, so

took him about two years.

Although both Atwood

and Van Delft have trained together every

season but says he doesn’t think

the new boosting programs will

affect their throwing.

A quick glance at the Tro-

man men’s results at the

season track meet last week. It’s a

to worry so much about technique. I know the talent is

to do at the end of last year

Schrader said. “The Trojans

by taking advantage of some

your legs swap,” Hardesty said.

Atwood said the transi-

of the team. Schrum placed

er leading returner for

Department of Education in 2009.

Elementary Education:

MIAA Admissions Update

Congratulations to the students who were accepted for admission into the Master of Arts in Coaching program in 2009.

Art. Vanita Weber. Elementary Education: Stephanie Ahrens-Mills, Sara

Annual馘es: Brian Berg, Kari Brandt, Brittany Brands, Ashley Brinyes, Elise Jushch, Samantha Callahan, Matthew

Student Teaching: John Cochrane not-

He is a student-teacher

was the second event. I have

projected hot-shot to

that’s really what you

good thrower,” Hardesty said.

the Trojans and that’s all

A challenge for Van Delft is

in the races, he’s going to be

Consistently through the

after Schrum studied abroad to do at the end of last year

He got better at running

by making the team. He

what they do. Obvi-

is that — just putting it all

between each other. Atwood said the transi-

us and both throwers are

using their legs more, so

took him about two years.

Although both Atwood

and Van Delft have trained together every

season but says he doesn’t think

the new boosting programs will

affect their throwing.

A quick glance at the Tro-

man men’s results at the

season track meet last week. It’s a

to worry so much about technique. I know the talent is

to do at the end of last year

Schrader said. “The Trojans

by taking advantage of some

your legs swap,” Hardesty said.

Atwood said the transi-

of the team. Schrum placed

er leading returner for

Department of Education in 2009.

Elementary Education: