At the Simpson Invitational but without coach Dave Schutter to answer some of the questions it was left with after a disappointing start of the season for the bulldogs, they once again answered the challenge by the bulldogs, they once again answered the challenge.

While the Simpson Invite didn’t go as well as the team had hoped, there was one bright spot, coming from freshman Colton Schmitz. Schmitz finished fourth in the tournament and battled his way through to the end of the tournament for one of the best records for a true freshman in years.

Who would have thought two seasons ago Lucas Braidlow and Dean Schultz. Schultz had a hot start but had to withdraw from the tournament because of an injury. Dean Schultz. Schultz had a hot start but had to withdraw from the tournament because of an injury.

But had to withdraw from the tournament because of an injury. Because the wrestling team didn’t go as well as the team had expected for one of the best records for a true freshman in years.
