Men knock off Northwest 69-65

By Logan Jackson

Freshman guard Torey Norten continued to make up for a MIAA Freshman of the Year.

Norten, along with junior guard Sholee Garrison, led the Bulldogs (5-3, 3-3 MIAA) in a 94-69 win against Northwest Missouri State University.

As they did in the first half, the Bulldogs started out hot in the second.

In the first half, the Bulldogs had a two-point lead and went into halftime with a 19-point lead.

In the second half, the Bulldogs continued their hot shooting and never looked back.

Norten had a career-high 29 points, while Garrison added 21 points and 11 rebounds.

The Bulldogs improved to 6-9 and 3-3 in MIAA play.

The win over Northwest Missouri State University is the Bulldogs' first win in MIAA play.

The Bulldogs next play at Central Missouri State University on Thursday, February 18, at 7:30 p.m.
