SHARPE

His third-place 500-free at MST.

described as “one of the best dis-
in two seconds behind MST’s

during the weekend. Simek came

the Bulldogs, with a first-place

do. But overall I think I swam very

the other kids on the team did very

end of a fortnight during which the

SWEPT

Freshman forward Megan Sharpe is averaging 15 minutes, 2.5 points and 2.9 rebounds this season.

Andrew McCall and freshman

ing their work.

weeks to fine-tune strategies and during his race. Simek said. “The last 50 the kid in

Simek was also an excellent player

which the men’s swimming team

fiments.

“Throughout the whole race, until

and 402 we were one.

I was really trying to edge that girl out, but sometimes it’s just not good. It’ll be a better race next time.

She was pretty exhausting by

100-yard breaststroke. Buss fi

and they are in the top five in the butterfly. She had a great race in the 200 IM, in the 200-yard freestyle.

the freestyle.

I have a lot of respect for

almost impossible to beat in her

manner. Sharpe said.

She’s one of those swimmers

they’re in the water for the sport, and the swim-mer

outlet.

Martinotor competition has a

Her teammate, Erin Dolan, who was first,

“Throughout the whole race, until

Simek’s)

300; (c)泳手陈志远 (NYU).

The women’s swimming team lost in two duals against Drury University and Missouri University of Science and Technology last weekend. The team ends the dual with men vs. women at MST.

SWEPT

Junior Anna Grinter earns Truman’s only individual win in 200-yard butterfly

There was the 1,500-yard freestyle, in which junior Jana Jones was first — although Drury drop-tipped Erin Dolan, who was first in the 200-yard breaststroke, in which junior Abby Musch was first.

“Throughout the whole meet, we

Simek’s)

of computer science.

“Throughout the whole race, until

The men’s swimming team lost in two duals against Drury University and Missouri University of Science and Technology last weekend. The team ends the dual with men vs. women at MST.

SHARPE

his third-place 500-free at MST.

described as “one of the best dis-
in two seconds behind MST’s

during the weekend. Simek came

the Bulldogs, with a first-place

do. But overall I think I swam very

the other kids on the team did very

end of a fortnight during which the

SWEPT

Freshman forward Megan Sharpe is averaging 15 minutes, 2.5 points and 2.9 rebounds this season.

Andrew McCall and freshman

ing their work.

weeks to fine-tune strategies and

during his race. Simek said. “The last 50 the kid in

Simek was also an excellent player

which the men’s swimming team

fiments.

“Throughout the whole race, until

and 402 we were one.

I was really trying to edge that
girl out, but sometimes it’s just not

good. It’ll be a better race next time.

She was pretty exhausting by

100-yard breaststroke. Buss fi

and they are in the top five in the butterfly. She had a great race in the 200 IM, in the 200-yard freestyle.

the freestyle.

I have a lot of respect for

almost impossible to beat in her

manner. Sharpe said.

She’s one of those swimmers

they’re in the water for

the sport, and the swim-mer

outlet.

Martinotor competition has a

Her teammate, Erin Dolan, who was first,

“Throughout the whole race, until

Simek’s)

300; (c)泳手陈志远 (NYU)．

The women’s swimming team lost in two duals against Drury University and Missouri University of Science and Technology last weekend. The team ends the dual with men vs. women at MST.

SWEPT

Junior Anna Grinter earns Truman’s only individual win in 200-yard butterfly

There was the 1,500-yard freestyle, in which junior Jana Jones was first — although Drury drop-tipped Erin Dolan, who was first in the 200-yard breaststroke, in which junior Abby Musch was first.

“Throughout the whole meet, we

Simek’s)

of computer science.

“Throughout the whole race, until

The men’s swimming team lost in two duals against Drury University and Missouri University of Science and Technology last weekend. The team ends the dual with men vs. women at MST.

SHARPE

his third-place 500-free at MST.

described as “one of the best dis-
in two seconds behind MST’s

during the weekend. Simek came

the Bulldogs, with a first-place

do. But overall I think I swam very

the other kids on the team did very

end of a fortnight during which the

SWEPT

Freshman forward Megan Sharpe is averaging 15 minutes, 2.5 points and 2.9 rebounds this season.

Andrew McCall and freshman

ing their work.

weeks to fine-tune strategies and

during his race. Simek said. “The last 50 the kid in

Simek was also an excellent player

which the men’s swimming team

fiments.

“Throughout the whole race, until

and 402 we were one.

I was really trying to edge that
girl out, but sometimes it’s just not

good. It’ll be a better race next time.

She was pretty exhausting by

100-yard breaststroke. Buss fi

and they are in the top five in the butterfly. She had a great race in the 200 IM, in the 200-yard freestyle.

the freestyle.

I have a lot of respect for

almost impossible to beat in her

manner. Sharpe said.

She’s one of those swimmers

they’re in the water for

the sport, and the swim-mer

outlet.

Martinotor competition has a

Her teammate, Erin Dolan, who was first,

“Throughout the whole race, until

Simek’s)

300; (c)泳手陈志远 (NYU)．

The women’s swimming team lost in two duals against Drury University and Missouri University of Science and Technology last weekend. The team ends the dual with men vs. women at MST.