Local Democrats support Peppard

By Ande Hewitt

Local Democrats named David Peppard as their recommendee for Adair County Prosecutors.

Peppard won the Republican primary in May and is scheduled to face the Democrat nominee in November.

The central committee consists of nine Adair County residents. Caldwell said, “We’ve just made the recommendation and could have named anyone. This is not a done deal just because we chose him.” Caldwell said, “We’ve just told the governing bodies in the district that we’re making a recommendation. Those people can be involved in state government decisions that affect their everyday lives.”

Adair County Prosecutor Mark Caldwell announced their support of David Peppard.

“Dr. Coughlin has been here for a long time, and he knows the University really well. He does understand the University, and I think he will do a great job.”

Janet Gooch

Communist of Communiation Sciences

Continued from Page 1

The recommendation shows how the University shall not...